vs. Bill.

Pursuant. Ans. &c

1859 Feby. Rules.

To the Hont. Richd H. Battle, Judge of the Circuit Court of Southampton County.

Humbly complaining shew unto your Hono. your Complainants. Joshua Pretlow and N. F. Rives, who sue on behalf of themselves, and all other creditors of Edward I. Turner decd - who will come in and contribute to the costs of this suit.

That Edward I. Turner in his lifetime was justly indebted to your Complts. Joshua Pretlow by bond due July 20th 1858. for $136 - as will appear by the bond herewith filed Marked (1) and prayed to be taken as a part of this bill.

That the said Turner was justly indebted to your Complts. N. F. Rives, in the sum of $ on an open account, herewith filed Marked (2) and prayed to be taken as a part of this bill.

That the said Edward I. Turner, was in his lifetime and at the time of his death seized and possessed of considerable personal estate, consisting of slaves and chattels, and also of a tract of land containing 333 acres lying in Southampton County, adjoining the lands of William A. Jones, and Thomas B. Powell - and others.

That being so seized and possessed, the said Ed. I. Turner, departed this life intestate, some time during the past year, intestate, leaving a widow Helen D. Turner and an infant child, named, Rosalina Turner, who are entitled to such of his estate as may remain after payment of all debts, expenses of administration; And that an administration of the estate of the said Turner was duly granted by the County Court of Southampton to Thomas B. Powell, at the Mch. Term 1858 -

That means and by virtue of his administration, he the said Donell, has become possessed of the whole or the greater part of the said intestate's personal estate and effects and the real estate has been disposed of in the following manner. That is, it has been sold by the public auction, to Isaac Jones, for the sum of $3500 - on the following Terms to wit. One third cash, when the court shall confirm the sale, and the balance on a credit of one year thereafter, bearing interest. That the said sale is for a full, price and more than your orators, or the other creditors had any just right to be believe could be obtained for it; and therefore it is to their interest to assist & pray the confirmation of the said sale.

That the said Donell having possessed himself of the personal estate of the intestate, has been applied to by your orators to pay their respective demands out of the personal effects which had come to his hands - and if the same were not sufficient to pay the whole, then that the real estate might be sold, and the proceeds applied to the payment of their demands and all other claims, against the intestate, and if not sufficient to pay all that the creditors may be paid pro rata.

And the complts, well hoped that their demands would have been settled, but the dem. has declined, upon the pretence, that the estate, is not sufficient to pay all the demands against the intestate, and that it is right and proper that the creditors should be consulted, in order to ascertain the ~~many~~ amount of the indebtedness.

In tender consideration of all which and in as much as your complainants are without remedy in the premises, save by a court of Equity, where matters of this sort are cognizable and relievable. To the end therefore that justice may be done in the premises, your complts. pray that the said Thomas B Powell son of Edward T. Turner and Helen D. Turner, widow of Edward T Turner, Rosalie Turner an infant of tender years by some fit person to defend her in this suit, and John R. Jones, may be made defendants to this bill, and compelled to answer the same fully and unreasonably.

That the sale to John R. Jones, mentioned in this bill, may be confirmed — and the proceeds after taking out one third, for the widow — may be applied to the payment of the intestate's debts.

That an account may be taken of the debts due to your complainants, — and of all other debts owing by the intestate at the time of his death, and which remain unpaid.

That an account may be also taken of the intestate's personal estate, and effects coming by the said death, and that the same may be applied in due course of administration in the payment of your complts. demand, and of all other creditors of this first testator of the intestate, who shall come in, and contribute to the expenses of this suit, in proportion to their respective demands.

And that your honor will grant such other and general relief in the premises, as the nature of the case may require.

May it please the court.

To the Hon. Richard H Baker
Judge of the circuit Court of Southampton County.

The Answer of Selina D Lewis, to a Bill filed in this court, by Joshua Pulliam and others, creditors of Edward J. Lewis against her and others.

This Respondent saving &c - for answer to the said bill says - That she is the widow of E. J Lewis and as such entitled to dower in the real estate mentioned in the bill - That she has reason to believe that the personal estate of her deceased husband will be insufficient to pay and satisfy all the just demands against his estate; and that the realty will have to be sold for that purpose of satisfying the debts.

That the sale of the Land made conditionally to Jacob Jones, as mentioned in the bill meets her entire concurrence & approbation believing the sum offered is above its intrinsic value. - and she prays a confirmation of the sale, and the payment to her of one third the proceeds, to be held for her life; or the payment in goods, of such sum as shall compensate her, for her dower interest -

And having answered, she prays to be hence dismissed -

May it please the court.

vs. } Thos. B. Ponell

Turner cond.

1859. May 2

To the Hon. Richard H Battle, Judge of the Circuit Court of Southampton.

Answer of Thomas B. Powell, admr of Edward J. Turner to a bill exhibited against him and others, by Joshua Parham & others,

This respondent saving &c - for answer to the said bill, says, that he is the admr of Edward J. Turner, and in that character, has under his control the personal estate of his intestate.

That he has sold the same; and endeavoured to ascertain the amount of indebtedness of the estate; and has already ascertained an amount more than sufficient to absorb all the personal estate which has or is likely to come to this respondent's hands, or to the hands of others for him - and it is therefore indispensible to the protection of your respondent and the rights of creditors, that the amount of the demands against Ed. J. Turner's estate should be ascertained before the funds are paid out.

Your respondent further answers, that it will be necessary to sell the real estate of his intestate, for the purpose of paying his debts; and that the sale of the land which has been made as stated in the Plaintiffs bill to D. Jones, is most advantageous, in the opinion of this respondent, to the interest all the parties, creditors and heirs: and should be confirmed. This respondent will settle any account which the Court may require. And having answered prays to be hence dismissed.

May it please the Court.
