In consideration whereof the said Nancy by Opinion that the charge of direction for five years by the defendant be stricken, that equity, and and direct that the Marriage settlement be delivered to James C. Rice and Nancy his wife and the same is hereby discharged, and that the said Nancy be forever discharged from her husband James C. Rice, and all the rights, title and interest of the said James C. Rice, in and to the estate real and personal of the said Nancy A. Rice, be and the same are hereby and determined, and that the plaintiff recover from the defendant costs of the expense to the prosecution of this suit. And nothing further remaining to be done in this suit, it is ordered that the same be remanded from the docket, but leave is reserved to the parties to make application to the court for such further ordering as may be necessary by reason

Spencer &c against Williams &c

Plff.
Defs.

Schlosser

This day this cause came on to be further heard on the proceedings formerly had and on the report of J. R. Kelly, Commissioner for the sale of the real estate of the plaintiff, and on argument by Counsel, the consideration of which the said court confirms said report in which no exceptions have been filed.

Ellis Ind. p 292

And the court doth further order and decree that J. R. Kelly, Commissioner, withdraw from the proceeds of the said sale the sum of $ 300 for his fees and expenses of the said sale, and pay over to Wm. J. Williams, esq. the balance of the said proceeds to pay the plaintiff the sum of Two Hundred and Ninety Nine Dollars and Two Cents with interest at Eleven hundred and Eighty Nine Dollars and Ninety Two Cents, from the 1st day of May 1870, mentioned in the stipulation filed 1870, that the remainder be paid over to the proceeds of the said Commissioner with costs expended Including Reports as they have been paid over to the proceeds to Wm. J. Williams as part of the plaintiff's share of the proceeds of the said Williams estate, and the court doth order and decree that the Commissioner report to the next Term of this court with expense of executing for the Lands purchased by him and report to court.

Bayness
vs Lucier Adm.

Plff.
Defs.

Schlosser

This day this cause came on to be heard on the bill and exhibits filed and the argument by Counsel, the consideration whereof and by Counsel for parties, the court doth approve of Mr. Deloss Spencer's Commissioner for the purpose of carrying the decree of Bayness, the court in the proceeding mentioned with expense of executing. And the said Stevens by order of court appointed to