claimant is intitled to after deducting the widows dower as aforesaid but that this defendant hath not money sufficient to pay the complainants demand without making sale of some of the said slaves so descended as afsd which cannot be done without the decree of this worshipful court in the premises which this defdt submits himself to and hopes that what right he hath therein may be saved to him because of this injunction without that, that &c obedience to the within order I have sold one negro slave named Nell for the sum of £170.0.1 being the most that could be got for the same which sum I have ready to pay as the said court shall direct.
