Wednesday, January [illegible] 1871

Present
The Hon. Lee Allen Jones

Calvin S. Turner } In Chancery
Eliza Turner, his wife, }
Elizabeth Turner, }
Mary Turner, } Pltffs
vs.
Robert Turner, } Defdt

This cause came on to be heard on the Plaintiffs' bill, the exhibits, and the testimony taken and filed in the Chancery Office, and on the argument of Counsel, upon the question reserved, and it appearing to the Court that the Complainants are the children and heirs at law of Robert Turner, deceased, late of Hardin County, Ky., and that the defendant is their brother, and the only surviving child and heir at law of said Robert Turner, deceased, and that the said Robert Turner died seized and possessed of a tract of land containing about [illegible] acres, being the same land which descended to him from his father, Robert Turner, deceased, and that the said Robert Turner died intestate, leaving his widow, Eliza Turner, and the complainants, his children and heirs at law, and that the said Robert Turner died without issue, and that the said Eliza Turner, his widow, died intestate, leaving the complainants, her children and heirs at law, and that the said Robert Turner, deceased, died seized and possessed of the said land, and that the said Eliza Turner, his widow, died seized and possessed of a dower therein, and that the said Robert Turner, deceased, died without issue, and that the said Eliza Turner, his widow, died without issue