vs
Jonathan Turner
Deft
Dec. Chancery

This day this cause came on to be heard on the bill of the complainants, the answer of the defendant Jonathan Turner, the exhibits, depositions, and other proof taken and filed, the notes of the defendant and argument by Counsel. On consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that partition be made of the lands in the bill mentioned as follows: to Lavinia Hardy, to Jeremiah H. Turner, to Josiah H. Johnson and Mary his wife and to Jonathan Turner and for the purpose of effecting such partition the Court orders that Jeremiah Hardy, Jonathan Johnson and S. C. Scott, who are hereby appointed Commissioners for that purpose, after notice of action and hearing, assign and allot to the several parties before named the respective shares and proportions before mentioned by metes and bounds, and if partition cannot be conveniently made, then the said Commissioners will report that fact to Court, and also whether the entire subject can be allotted to any interested party who will account to the others for their respective shares, and report how much money is coming to each entitled thereto. The said Commissioners will also report the said value of the land, with any other matters deemed pertinent by themselves or required by the parties.

Dec. Chancery

This day this cause came on to be heard on the complainants bill, the answers of George W. Newell, the answer of the infant defendants by G. McClintock their guardian ad litem, with general replication, and exhibits filed and not argued by counsel. On consideration whereof and the Court being of opinion that the interest devised to the wife of George W. Newell in the real estate of her father is a life estate, the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that Mr. W. Clayton, J. C. Stephenson, Charles
