and four pence with Interest from Same time - and to Jane, Elizabeth and Polly Wooton infant children of William & Elizabeth Wooton formerly Elizabeth Cobb, five pounds four shillings and four pence with Interest from Same time, being the one eighth part which appears due upon the account current returned by the defendants testator in his administration on Epsum Cobb estate and to which Thomas Cobb was entitled by the will of said Epsum and which descended to the complainants by the death of said Thomas Cobb —

Absent Benjamin W. Johnston pres.t Benjamin Cobb —

Ordered that the Sheriff Summon the Justices to meet on the Second day of may Court next to examine the accounts of James Gee Sheriff; collection of the county levy, examine and make a list of Insolvents and lay the county levy for the year 1821 receive claims —

On the motion of the attorney for the commonwealth and for cause shewn to the court It is ordered that Lemuel Stephenson be Summoned to the next court to Shew cause why a Scire facias should not issue against him for a breach of a recognizance entered into by him to keep the peace

The Commonwealth . . . . . Plff against George Branch . . . . . Deft } upon a presentment of the grand

D 5-04
Sh 5-04
d 2-50
os 1-06
NS 1-06
DB 1-59
DB 4-24
$14-07

This day came the attorney for the commonwealth and on motion of the defendant he is allowed to plead and thereupon his attorney he pleaded not guilty to which the attorney for the commonwealth replies generally and thereupon issue being joined and a jury to wit, James Mayes, Nathaniel Summons, Willis Brill, Cook, Edwin Williams, John Williams, Benjamin Sebrell, Jo. Odonnelly, Silas Summons, Reuben Whitfield, Nathaniel Willis & Jesse Barnett, who being elected tried and Sworn the truth to speak upon the issue joined returned a verdict in the words following viz. We the jury find the defendant not guilty Therefore it is considered by the court that the commonwealth take nothing by their bill and that the defendant go thence without day and recover his costs from about his defence in this behalf expended —