To the Wppel Court of Southampton sitting in chancery humbly complaining them to the Court your creators Tannel & Nish. late Merchants, & Appearers.

That they were indebted to, & gave bond to John & Edward Peppers for about the sum of £107.4 on the day of 179. That Subsequent thereto a C.levi. William Nish having a claim against them obtained an Attachment against the said John & Edward Peppers. & had the same levied in the hands of your Complainants. and upon their appearance at this Court, it was ordered that your creators pay to the said William about the sum that they were indebted to John & Edward Peppers. which they have long since done, Notwithstanding this Circumstance Edward Peppers the Surviving Partner had a Suit instituted in this Court against your creators on the bond aforesaid & obtained a judgment & had writ on execution thereupon in order to Compel a Second payment of the said debt in consequence of which your creators are driven to this Tribunal for Relief, To the end therefore that the said Edward Peppers, who your Complainants
