SOUTHAMPTON COUNTY
CHANCERY PAPERS

VICK et al vs VICK & UX

5/1803

Plat

Other SURNAMES: Jordan

To the Worshipful Court of Southampton County, sitting in Chancery, humbly complaining, shew unto the Court.
Your Petors and co-pleaders Christian Vick, Jacob Vick, and Benjamin Jordan and Mowmy his wife

That Jesse Vick late of this County departed this life on or about the day of in the year of our Lord one thousand and eight hundred intestate and without issue. That he left as his legal representatives the aforesaid Christian Vick his widow and Mowmy Jordan and Jacob Vick, and a certain ^{Lydia Vick, also intermarried with} ~~Lydia~~ Vick his brothers and sisters. That in his life time and at the time of his decease he was legally seized and possessed of a considerable estate both real and personal, consisting of Lands, Stock, household furniture and.

and, tools. And Your Orators and oratrices further state that a division of the said estate according to Law, would prove very advantageous to themselves as well as to the said Pilgrim Vick, but that the same can not be legally effected without the equitable intervention of this court on account of the Dower of the said Christian the widow.

In tender consideration whereof and for as much as Your Orators and oratrices are reminded in the premises, at common Law, they ~~submit~~ the aid of this court, whose peculiar province it is, to grant relief in cases of this kind.

To the end therefore they pray that the said Pilgrim Vick and Lydia his ^{wife} may be made dependant to this bill of complaint, and that he may full true and perfect answer make to all and singular the allegations herein contained, and that as copiously as if the same were again repeated and interrogated. and more especially that he set forth if the before mentioned Jesse Vick, did not die in the year aforesaid without issue and without will? If he was not seized and possessed at the time of his death of such an estate as is before mentioned and if division of the same among the Compt^{ts} and heirs is not very desirable. They pray also that the Court will decree to the aforesaid widow one third of all the before mentioned ^{real} estate, ^{for life &} one ^{half} of the personal property in fee, ~~and~~

~~the real estate for life~~, and that the residue of the estate be equally divided between the other complainants and the said Pilgrim Vick. Or that W.^d Worships will make such other order or decree in the premises for the relief W.^d Complainants as may be consistent with equity & justice

May it please V.

Vick P. 7
vs { Bill &
Vick. { answer.

The answer of Pilgrim Vick and Lydia his wife to the bill of complaint exhibited against him in the Woolsheaf Court of Southampton county. by Christian
and Mourning his wife

This Respondent saving & alfo answers to the bill of the Compt^s saith, that it is true that Jesse Vick did depart this life intestate and without issue about the period mentioned by the Compt^s. That in his Life time and at the time of his decease he was lawfully seized and possessed of such an estate both real and personal as is mentioned in their bills. He admits too, that the Complainants and himself are the only legal representatives of the said Jesse Vick and that such a division of his said estate among them as is asked for by the Compt^{rs} will, be strictly consonant to the law, and very advantageous to them, as well as to himself. He therefore prays that the Court will not only pronounce such a decree but also appoint fit and proper persons for carrying the same to execution. He lastly begs to be hence dismissed with his reasonable costs in this behalf expended
