Blow - vs
Williamson
} Bill of Injn

To the court of Southampton sitting in chancery humbly complaining, shews to the court your orators George Blow and Mills Everitt That Mathew Williamson lately lately recovered a judgment against your orators Geo: Blow and Mills Everitt his security, for the sum of £ . That the said judgment was obtained upon a bond, the consideration of which (except a very small part) was gaming - Your orators have been advised that a court of equity are authorized to injoin a judgment obtained upon a gaming debt. and he feels the less reluctance at taking this advantage, because he has reason to believe that the said money was not fairly won of him. They state that they are now threatened with an exon on the said judgt.
In tender consideration whereof they pray the interposition of this court - To the end therefore they may that the said Mathew Williamson be made a defendant to this bill of complaint, and that he may upon oath answer the foregoing allegations, and that as copiously as if the same were again repeated and he thereto particularly interrogated. They lastly pray that the said judgment may be injoined &.

May it please &c

Sworn to by George Blow before me this 17th of April 1807.

The Answer of Mathew Williamson to the Bill exhibited against him in the worshipfull Court of Southampton, by George Blow and Mills Everitt.

This Defendant having & answereth and saith, That somewhere about the year Geo Blow became indebted, (as this respondent has been informed and verily believes) to Johnson Hunt & Co in the sum of £ for goods wares and merchandyes sold and delivered to the said George Blow, or to his order, That to secure to the said Johnson Hunt & Co the payment of the said sum of money the said George Blow executed to them his bond, that some time afterwards the said Johnson Hunt & Co being indebted, applied to him in discharge of his debt &c and executed to them by George Blow, that this respondent wanted the said bond to the said Blow for payment, he promised at several times to discharge the same, but always failing, this respondent became more urgent, in consequence of which the said George Blow agreed to take up the bond executed by him to Johnson Hunt & Co and to give this respondent his bond with security - That in consideration that ~~request~~ agreement the said Blow and Mills Everitt executed to this respondent their bond, that this respondent having waited for near twelve months with an expectation that the bond would be discharged, was at last compelled to substitute a writ thereon, and hath lately recovered a Judgment which has been enjoined on the most unjust and frivolous grounds, This respondent most positively avers that he never played at any game whatever with either the said Blow or Everitt for one farthing, nor does he believe that either Johnson or Hunt had any claim of a pecuniary kind on the said Blow, when he executed to them his bond as aforesaid. This respondent denying all combination prays may to be hence dismissed, with his ~~with~~ reasonable Costs

Costs &c. &c.

Matthew Williamson this day made oath before me a magistrate for the said county that the answer as to matters within his own knowledge is true and as to matters within the knowledge of others he believes it to be true Given under my hand this 21st day of May 1804.
