Dec 1807
final decree

To the worshipful Court of Southampten County in Chancery sitting - Humbly complaining sheweth unto your worships your orator Robert Mabry that on the 1st of June a certain Pitteter Post executed his note under seal to a certain Newit ^{1st} Claed for the sum of fifteen pounds payable on the 1st day of January One thousand seven hundred & ninety seven - that before any payment was made on the said bond, the said Newit Claed departed this life intestate - whereupon a certain Joshua Claed obtained letters of administration on his estate in due and solemn form of law - that the said Joshua Claed became possessed, in his character of administrator, of the before mentioned ^{bond}, and signed the same by your orator, on the 1st day of June 1802, as will fully appear by the said bond, with the signature thereon, hereto annexed and prayed to be considered a part of the bill - Here your orator begs leave to state to the Court, that there are some credits to be applied towards the satisfaction of the said bond, but that the sum really due on after allowing the paid credits and making the proper calculations of interest, amounts to ten pounds, two shillings and eight pence - your orator further represents & prays that the said Joshua Glau is indebted from in the sum of $17.04 due to the said Joshua Glau in the sum of fifteen pounds four shillings & eight pence moreover states to the Court, that the said Joshua Glau is a resident of the State of Georgia, and that the said petition is very notoriously insolvent & that your orator is completely covered by the premises, and he further represents & prays that a certain James Harris, of Southampton County, has property in his possession, being of the said Joshua Glau, which will be fully sufficient to discharge your orator's demand. In tender consideration whereof, and because your orator is remediless in the premises, except this the interposition of a Court of Chancery, your orator prays that the said Joshua Glau and James Harris may be made defendants to this bill and be compelled on their corporal oaths & by them taken on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God, to answer all and singular the allegations of the same, fully, perfectly and unreversibly - and to do and that complete and ample justice may be effected, may it please the Court to enjoin and restrain the said Harris from paying, conveying away, or secreting ^{any} debts by ~~the~~ ^{him} owing to, or effects in his hand belonging, to, the said Joshua Glau until the matters in this bill be fully heard in Equity.

May it please the Court to grant general relief and your orator will ever pray &c.

Att for complainant.
