Farmer & other Customary Articles estimated at Hundred and Twenty Four Dollars, all of Less Household and Kitchen furniture, one Horse, and Bay four years old, Cattle, thirty head of Hogs, Sixty Sheep, with all other Farming Implements belonging to said Farm, then Edmunds permitt the Property of Debtor? Now if the said John Barnes shall pay the said Sum on or before the first day of March next, then the above and all Cattle & Chattels therein, other than the Debtor and his Wife and the said It is not intended the said Thomas J. Edmunds is hereby empowered to grant Sale the Property to Persons Creditor Debtors, shall expire to public Sale the property, to the highest bidder, and after deducting the aforesaid amount of Debt & Interest thereon, accounting with Cost allowed, with 5 per Cent for the Commissions, the balance to be paid to the said John Barnes or his Representatives, witnesses our hands & seals the in face form and Date

Witness our hands and seals the day and date before written

John Barnes (Seal)
T. J. Edmunds (Seal)

Southampton County, To the Clerk's Office, March the 18th 1872

This Deed of Trust from John Barnes to T. J. Edmunds, (Trustee) for the benefit of James S. Jones was this day received and acknowledged by the Parties John Barnes & T. J. Edmunds, parties thereto, to be their act and deed and admitted to record, a Stamp of the Int. Rev. of the U. S. to the amount of fifty Cents, being affixed thereto and duly Cancelled.

Teste, James R. Taylor, Jr. C.

Know all men by these presents, that we, Amos Brown, Geo. W. Turner, and Chas. Jones are held and firmly bound unto James R. Taylor, Clerk of the Court of Southampton County, in the penal sum of Seven Hundred and Twenty Dollars, to the payment of which we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals and dated this 18th day of March 1872.

The condition of the above obligation is such, that whereas the said Amos Brown has made application to the said Clerk for a license to retail spirituous liquors at his place of business in the County aforesaid, for the ensuing year, and has complied with the requisites of the law in such cases, and has given bond and security for the payment of the tax on said license, and for the observance of the laws of the State and County in the premises, and the said Amos Brown has also paid the tax on said license, and has taken the oath prescribed by the laws of the State, and has complied with all