To the worshipful Court of P. ampton in Chancery sitting - Humbly complaining sheweth unto your worships your orator Jacob Marling that John William Price of the Town of Peterburg have lately recovered against your orator a judgment upon a specialty for the sum of £ and threatens your orator with an execution thereon tho your orator states he is entitled to a credit for thirty dollars paid by him to Robert Hines since the institution of said suit which will more fully appear by reference to a receipt from said Hines which is hereto annexed, and a copy of said judgment is hereto ^{annexed} ~~and hereto~~ ^{to be} taken as part of this bill. In and to unaidation whereof and in as much as your orator is reminded in the premises he prays that your worships would make the said John and John Price and the said Robert Hines defendants hereto and that they be compelled to answer the foregoing allegation and your orator prays that your worships would grant an injunction inhibiting the said John & John Price the said Hines the sheriff and all others concerned from acting upon so much of the said execution as your orator is justly entitled to a credit for and he prays for general relief

Genl Marling this day appeared before me a justice of the peace and made oath to the truth of the foregoing bill.
Given under my hand this Henry Briggs J.P.
