

1814-047

SOUTHAMPTON COUNTY
CHANCERY PAPERS

WILBORNE

VS. CALVERT

5/18/14

To the Warrantable Court of Southampton County in Chancery sitting humbly complaining shew to y^r worshipps your orator, Jas H Wilkins that during the year a Judgment was reco^dd against him ^{for $100} at the instance & on the information of Saml Calcutt who is Treas^r a debt to the S^tate, as Com^r of the revenue, for having as stated, rendered goods contrary to the meaning and intent of the act 1802, relative to retaking ^{certain} goods without having previously obtained a licence for so doing - y^r Compt^l states that altho he had been in the habit of retaking such goods during some previous years during which time he had regularly obtained the proper licence for so doing, as he had nevertheless during the present year entirely omitted commerce of this description, & of any other that could in the most desultory manner implicate him, under the aforementioned Statute - that he had omitted to enquire the Com^r of this circumstance, who, ignorant of ~~the~~ fact, and under some impressions ^{against him} since found to be erroneous, as this Compt^l believes will be acknowledged by the Commissioner himself, made the information aforesaid - that from the peculiar situation of the Compt^l he was unable to attend at the trial, and of consequence, a Judgment was rendered against him ~~by~~ without the shadow of a trial, whereas, this Compt^l court, had his situation permitted, is now able to pose. ^{by sending yourself} that he has never by traffic, or aforesaid made himself an object of the act aforesaid, & of which fact, your Compt^l believes the Commissioner is now perfectly satisfied - In order consideration - Premised in the promise to the court that the defendant the premises, your Compt^l may that the defendant may be enjoined themselves defendant with costs - or such other decree as the court may think proper

Milburn Calif. } new

Done

May 1874
Dismissed

The truth of the southern States is in the hands of the people of the South