This Court states specially, that although it appears from above a/c. that the Trustee has paid each record school the balance of the property conveyed unto such is not the fact, inasmuch as there was an agreement between P. J. Holmes the beneficiary in Deed of Trust and the said Trustee, by which the said Jas. C. Gillette was to pay $365.00 for the property conveyed and which at further sale brought only $250.00. The said Jas. C. Gillette becoming the purchaser by performance to the Deed of Trust is will be seen that the deed was executed by said Barhamd to save said Holmes from any loss which he might sustain as surety for said Barhamd on his Official Bond as Collector &c. for any of the tax he incurred by said Holmes will be found amounts paid Trustee as per above a/c. as attorney's fees in defending suit. This bond is to Wm. L. Butler for $586.37 and all other parties conveyed in deed of trust were now by J. C. Gillette Trustee to Wm. A. Raiggs Trustee.
