Executor of George Willcious dec^d -

That in the year 1799 your orators testator hired a certain Richard Beal to work in his black Smith Shop half of the profits thereof. That at the end of the year your orator in behalf of his s^r testator who was his father settled & divided the accounts due to the shop, with the said Beal each taking his portion, & thereby as your orator supposed closing the transaction. But the s^r Beal ~~wherein~~ ^{your orator} prays may be made Dependant hereto, intending to wrong & practise a fraud upon your orators testator, had previously rec^d. payment for the accounts which fell to the lot of your orators s^r testator. & Strange to relate still made taking fraud upon fraud has since sued your orator as the Exec^{or} of his father, in this Court for the amount of the very same accounts obtained a judgment against him for £10. 10 falsely pretending that all the accounts belonged to him - all which is contrary to Equity. In tender consideration whereof & because your ora-intervention of your worships, he prays the and all proceedings thereon & finally perpetuate the same - & that your worships may grant such further & other relief in the premises as may be just & equitable & your
