To the worshipful Court of Southampton in Chancery sitting - Humbly complaining shew unto your worship your complainants James Kello and Mary his wife late Mary M. Blunt, And G. Milkinson widow and executrix of Nathaniel Milkinson and late Ann G. Blunt and Daniel Blunt an infant by her Guardian the said James Kello. That William Blunt the elder the father of your female complainants, died sometime in the year 1807 having first made and executed his last will and testament which has been duly admitted to record in the Court of this County, an attested copy of which is hereto annexed and prayed to be taken as a part of this bill. That the said William Blunt the elder at the time of his death was possessed of many valuable slaves. That his widow Elizabeth thought proper to renounce the provision made for her by the said last will and testament, and dower in the same was assigned to her, as will fully appear by viewing to an attested copy of a decree and report made thereupon which are hereto annexed and prayed to be taken as a part of this bill. That some short time after a decree was entered up in a friendly suit in Chancery for the division of the slaves (not included of course in the dower slaves) among your complainants and the other children of the said William Blunt the elder, which decree also directed and ordered a division of the slaves to which William Blunt the younger, (another child of the said William Blunt the elder, who died an infant unmarried and without issue shortly after the death of his father) was entitled among your female complainants, the other brother John Nashe Blunt and sisters Elizabeth and Martha Periwé Blunt of the said William Blunt the younger and the aforesaid Elizabeth widow of the said William Blunt the elder and mother to the said William Blunt the younger a copy of which is hereto annexed and prayed to be taken as a part of this bill. your complainants admit that a division was made among those entitled in pursuance of the decree above referred to, although the commissioners appointed to act in that case have never yet made a report of their proceedings to the Court - After those proceedings had taken place the said Elizabeth widow as aforesaid intermarried with a certain Benjamin N. Johnston and departed this life sometime in this present year, so that the same interest in the slaves which was assigned to her by the decree first above referred to ceases on the twenty fifth day of this present month. Your complainants have been informed that when the slaves of William Blunt the elder died ~~possessed~~ were divided among his heirs and devisees in obedience to the decree above referred to that only two thirds of the slaves to which William Blunt the younger was entitled at the time of his death were divided according to the directions of that decree, the remaining third being at that time included among those which were assigned to the said Elizabeth as and for her dower and if the fact should have been so your complainants are willing to admit, that one seventh part of that portion of the dower slaves which William Blunt the younger would be entitled to were he now living of right belongs to the said Benjamin N. Johnston as the adm^r of his said deceased wife Elizabeth. Your complainants have been further informed that some slaves which were devised by name in the will above referred to the said Elizabeth for the term of her natural life and then to the aforesaid John Norflit Blunt and the aforesaid William Blunt the younger or the survivor are also included among the dower slaves, and if this should be the case your complainants do not mean to set up any claim to the same. your complainants state that no other person than themselves and the other children of the said William Blunt the elder, to wit, John Norflit Blunt, Elizabeth Blunt and Martha Priscilla Blunt (with the exception of the claims which the above named Benjamin N. Johnston may have as the adm^r of his late wife Elizabeth) and ~~the only persons~~ ^{is} entitled to the slaves aforesaid. They further represent to your worship that it is important to all parties that a division should be speedily ^{effected} according to the will above referred to and the terms of the land and they also state that the aforesaid John Norflit Blunt, Elizabeth Blunt and Martha Priscilla Blunt children of the said William Blunt are infants and incapable of protecting their rights In tender consideration whereof and in as much as your complainants are residents in the premises except in a court of equity where matters of this kind are properly and alone cognizable, ^{they pray} that the aforesaid John Norflit Blunt Elizabeth Blunt and Martha Priscilla Blunt infants may be made defendants by some friend appointed to defend them in this behalf, and that the aforesaid Benjamin N. Johnston may be also made a defendant and be compelled with the said infant defendants to answer all and singular the allegations herein contained fully and unequivocally, and more especially that the said John Norflit Blunt set forth and say whether any of the slaves which were assigned as dower to the widow of the said William Blunt the elder are of the number of slaves which were devised to him and his brother William Blount the younger either survivor and if so. to state how many and which. and that the said Benja^d M^r Johnston explicitly say whether the proportion to which his late wife Elizabeth was entitled of the slaves devised to the said William Blount the younger was fully laid off and assigned when or whether she only received her proportion of two thirds of the slaves to which the said M^r the younger was entitled. and your complainant further pray that your worship would decree a division of the slaves which were assigned to the said Elizabeth as and for her dower equally among and between your complainants and the infants defendants. and your complainants further pray that your worship would make any other or further order in the premises, which may be consistent with justice and Equity and they will &c -

To the worshipful Court of Southampton in Chancery sitting
The separate answer of John Warfield Blunt an infant by his next friend William Phillips appointed by the Court specially to defend him in this behalf to the bill of complaint exhibited against himself and others by James Wells and his wife Mary, late Mary N. Blunt. Ann G. Milkinson widow and relict of Nathaniel Milkinson and late Ann G. Blunt and Leuisa Blunt an infant by her next friend and guardian James Wells —

This Respondent now and at all times saving and reserving to himself all and every benefit of exceptions to any errors or imperfections in the complainants bill contained for answer thereto saith. That he is advised that the facts stated in the complainants are substantially true. He begs leave to refer this honorable Court to the attested copy of the last will and testament of William Blunt the elder, wherein it will appear that several slaves by name with their increase are devised to the widow of the testator during her natural life and at her death to your respondent and his brother William or the survivor. Your respondent states that of the number of slaves so as aforesaid devised to him the following to wit are included among the dower slaves which was assigned to the said Elizabeth as her dower, and to the division of which he shall positively object, and insist upon his exclusive right and title to the same under the last will and testament of his deceased father William Blunt. In all other respects your respondents is perfectly willing that a deed may be made and entered up according to the prayer of the complainants bill and he prays to be hence dismissed &c —

The answer of Ben^t W^m Blunt adm^r of his late wife Elizabeth who was widow and relict of William Blunt the elder to the bill of Complaint exhibited against him and others by James Kells and his wife Mary late May W^m Blunt, Ann & William Blunt widow and relict of Nathl^l McKinion and late Ann & William Blunt and Louisa Blunt an infant by her next friend and guardian the said James Kells - This Respondent now and at all times saving and reserving to himself every benefit of exception to any error in said bill contained for answer thereto saith. That he has no other intent in the subject matter of the bill. than this. That when the division of the slaves was made among the heirs and devisees of William Blunt the elder and the heirs of W^m Blunt the younger only two thirds of the slaves to which the said W^m Blunt the younger would have been entitled had he been living were divided among the heirs of the said William Blunt the younger the remaining one third being included at that time among the slave slaves, and he therefore considers himself entitled to one seventh part of the said one third part which is included in the slave slaves in right of his said wife Elizabeth, who was mother with the said William Blunt the younger and equally entitled of course with the brothers and sisters of the said William Blunt the younger provided your respondents claim to the said proportion of slaves is sound to him. He has no objection that such decree should be entered as is prayed for and he prays to be hence dismissed &c.

I William Blunt of Southampton County and Commonwealth of Virginia do make and ordain this my last will & testament, in manner following.

I bequeath to my excellent and dear wife Elizabeth, for and during her natural life the upper part of the land whereon I live to be divided by a line beginning at Powell's branch opposite the sandy bottom and running thro' the same by a straight line to the Swamp near the old peach orchard; thence down the meanders of the said Swamp until it gets to the lower end of the great fishing hole; from thence about midway between the Cove fields and the old flat neck fields; thence in the same course so as to run a little above the hickory neck hogpen; thence in the same course so as to run a little above the Ridley hogpen; and from thence until it strikes the Gut which runs into Meherrin river. together with all the perishable property thereon. and at the decease of my said wife I give the aforesaid land premises and perishable property to my son William Blunt, and his heirs; but should he die without lawful issue, then; and in that case, I give the same to my son John Norfleet Blunt, and his heirs; but should he die without lawful issue, then and in that case, I give the said land and premises, to his several sisters, and their issues lawfully begotten, to wit, to my respective daughters and their heirs forever—

I give to my son John Norfleet Blunt, and his heirs, all the other part of the land above described which by below the bounds before mentioned adjoining the land of Lawrence Smith, and lying on the north side of Meherrin River; together with the several tracts or parcels of land opposite thereto lying in the Counties of Greenville and Northampton, which I own by devise from my father, and my purchases from Messrs. Richards & H. Haley, Green Farmer and James Brantley; together with the perishable property thereon which may remain when my said son John Norfleet, shall arrive to the age of nineteen years; which property with the said land devised to him are reserved and

I do hereby lend to my beloved wife untill he shall come to the age above mentioned, or during my said wife's widowhood — but it is my will and desire, that should my son John N. Blunt die without lawful issue then and in that case I give the aforesaid lands and premises to my son William & his heirs; but should he in like manner die without lawful issue then and in that case I give the same to his several sisters and their issue lawfully begotten, (to wit, to my respective daughters — I lend to my beloved wife during her natural life, or widowhood my negro man Pandy the miller, together with the use of one third part of my Grist mill in F^{al}con County, or in other words, I give her one third part of the profits thereof she bearing the like proportion of the expence, and at the termination of her right, I give the said mill seat with its appurtenances to my son William, and his heirs, to be controlled and subject to the same course of descent and inheritance as is directed in the first will to the said William Blunt —

I desire that my lands in Greenville and Person in N^o Carolina, my land in Greenville adjoining those of Turner Williamson, and others, and my tract of land in F^{al}con called Harris's, may be sold by my executors, on a credit at their discretion, and the monies arising to be equally divided among my daughters, as they come to the age of eighteen or marry — I lend to my loving wife during her natural life or widowhood, for the purpose of raising, educating & maintaining my children the use of all my Slaves & other personal estate not before disposed of subject to a diminution of each child's part as they may come of age or marry — but should my wife deem it proper to marry, then and in that case I desire that twenty of the said Slaves may be allotted to her, of such ages, sizes & qualities as she may select, hoping that due regard will be had to a just and equitable value of the rest, my desire is that the following negroes (viz.) Patience, Jo an,

Peruse, Philis, Sale, & Ephraim, Tom, & David, may remain at my manor plantation, subject to the control of my wife, during her natural life; and at her decease, that they and their increase may be equally divided between my sons John & William, or the Survivors of them, and their heirs forever —

In testimony of these presents I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 20th day of April one thousand eight hundred and seven, and hereby publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, revoking all former ones, and for the due performance and requisit of this trust, I do constitute and appoint John B. Turner, Benjamin Blunt, Senior, and Henry Blow my executors and hope they will comply with my friendly request —
