Delivered to J. H. Camp May 3rd 1886

This Deed made this 15th day of December One thousand eight hundred and seventy six between Solomon Camp of the one part and Samuel H. Camp of the other party, all of the County of Southampton and State of Virginia, witnesseth: That in Consideration of the natural love and affection I have for my son Samuel H. Camp, party of the second part, this day I do hereby give to him and his heirs forever, all of the tract of land known as the Barrett tract containing by admeasurement one hundred and thirty four acres more or less, also fifteen acres additional, it being a portion of the old tract on which I now reside and adjoining the said Barrett tract, the boundaries containing both parcels as follows: On the north by Black Creek Swamp; on the south by Gerard new swamp; on the east by Black Creek swamp; on the west by Jno. Camp; commencing at Gerard new swamp near a spring; thence to a red oak; thence north approximately a direct course distance to a large cypress in Black Creek swamp. The party of the first part does hereby warrant the right and title to the aforesaid parcels of land. Given under my hand and seal this day above written.
John Camp (Seal)

Southampton County, to wit:
This day personally appeared before me W. F. Butler a Justice of the Peace for the County and State aforesaid John Camp, whose name is signed to the writing above bearing date December 15th 1876, and acknowledged the same to be his act and deed.
Given under my hand this 15th day of December 1876.
