Oct. 1872. W. C. Barnes for accounts.

To the most honorable the Court of Southampton County in Chancery sitting. Humbly complaining sheweth unto your honors, your Orator Limmons Barnes orphan of Bennett Barnes dec^d, by ~~John~~ Barrett, his next friend & Guardian that the father of your Orator departed this life some time since, having first duly made and published his last will & testament, which was duly recorded by this Court of this County; in which he named his wife Jane Barnes as his Ex^{rs}. Your Orator further states, that in pursuance of this authority she proved the will, stood upon herself the business of executing the same - that the debts of the said Estate are discharged & that there is no longer any receipting for her to keep the balance of her dec^d husband's Estate in her hands - that your Orator therefore wishes a settlement of the Executorial acc^{ts} of the said Jane, & has applied to her, & to her husband Lewis Worrell, with whom she has since intermarried, but has been unable to accomplish his object, and will be unable to do so without the intervention of this Court. To the end therefore, that justice may be done, he prays that the said Worrell & wife may be made defaulters hereunto, & compelled to answer the allegations hereof, that your honors, will then decree, that they pay unto your Orator such part of the said balance as he may be intitled to - that you will grant him such other Equi^{ty} relief, as is consistent with Equity & good conscience, and as in duty bound, he will ever pray, &c.

The answer of Lewis Worrell & Jane his wife, late Jane Barnes, admits the allegations of the foregoing Bill, and have no objection to the decree asked, for & having answered pray to be hence dismissed -

Barnes by next friends.
