Teste James Rochelle C.C.

Comr's Office Jerusalem July 13th 1826

In Obedience to the above order of Court. Samuel Parham Guardian to the Orphans of James Butts dec.d and Edward A Jones who all alluded to in the above order of Court attended before the Comr. the same agreeably to notice and the account heretofore reported to which the vouchers were all examined by the parties and a part of which were rejected (to wit) $6 paid John Butts Sheriff 13th 1818. and Richard Clements instead of $1.31 as charged in the said account $1.85 should be charged to the Exr also exhibit some vouchers of Lands which were not charged in the said account. The Guardian accepts credit the charge against the orphans by the Exr for board &c and assigns his reason for doing so that they were not the Guardians and until they were represented by them as Guardian he could not legally charge for board &c but the Tuition was not Objected to. the Comr. Commenced without deciding the point that charges be made for their board. Clothing and Tuition he having been encompetently the Exr specially to do and therefore the whole subject is respectfully submitted to the Court
