+ 1829 Oct. decree as filed &c

To the worshipful County Court of St. Louis in my Petition Humbly complaining thereto, and to your worship, your Honor Lewis Corralle that sometime in the year 1823 a certain Robert Dauphny executed to ^{me on the order of the County Court of St. Louis} deed in trust, "Caringing to John Spencer or trustee for the purpose of securing a debt due from the Said Dauphny to the Compt Lewis Corralle ~~then~~ mentioned as certain tract of land which the said John Spencer was directed therein to sell upon failure of the said Dauphny to discharge the said debt & in that deed to, first pay the said debt but not the balance pay over to the said Dauphny

That the said John Spencer has since died without having executed the said trust, and that the said debt from the Said Dauphny is yet due & unpaid.

That the said Robert Dauphny died sometime past undivided left the following heirs & distributees to wit.
Leve Dauphny - Polly since married to Lewis Brown. - Leve Dauphny - Mills Dauphny - Sally Dauphny & Miles Dauphny. that by means of the death of the said Spencer there is no person now who can without the order of this worshipful Court execute the trust aforesaid - In order considerations &c it is proposed that the distributees of the said Robert Dauphny agree to make debt deeds & that the Court appoint another trustee on the premises and grant such general relief as may be equitable & just & as in duty lie.
L Corralle

The answers of Leve - Leve - Mills - Miles & Sally Dauphny and Polly & Lewis Brown to the bill of complaint against them in this worshipful Court exhibited by Lewis Corralle these respondents having & receiving &c for answers thereto admit the allegations in the same contained and have no objection to the decree as proposed & having fully answered pray to be hence dismissed &c -
