Intended as a codicil to my Will annexed. Whereas an Estate in Slaves at this time being very uncertain, and likely to be more so, it would be unreasonable that my son Henry Taylor, if any loss of the slaves given him or their increase should be sustained by any such slaves slaves going to the Enemy, should suffer the whole loss. Therefore it is my devise that my son should bear only an equal proportion with his three Sisters Charlotte, Mary and Martha to whom he is to deliver at a certain period out of his Estate, Slaves to a certain value mentioned in the Will

Witness my hand this 11th Day April 1781.
