19th March 1879

Weaver & Co.
of New York

To the Honorable the County Court of Southampton in Ch. sitting, Humbly complaining I sheweth to your worship your orator Sarah Weaver that some time since your orator & a certain John Sheppard who is prayed defendant hereto entered into a mercantile partnership and carried on business under the firm of Weaver & Sheppard in the town of Salisbury, North Carolina.
That the business owing to the peculiar circumstances of the times & other circumstances unnecessary to enumerate was unproductive & losing & by consent a dissolution of the partnership took place on the day of February 1879. That during the existence of the partnership a great many debts had been incurred & many new debts and at the close of the business & incurring considerably in amount the debts due to the firm. That debts due from the firm had previously to the dissolution been discharged in many instances by the partners in their individual characters and in very unequal proportions by far the greater part having been advanced by your orator.
That on the 15th day of July 1879 a partial settlement was made between the parties of so much of the partnership transactions as had at that time been liquidated & closed & a balance was found in favour of your orator of $552.95 & which the s^d. Sheppard then individually assumed to pay & for which an action is now pending at law in the Superior Court of Southampton County. That at the time of the s^d. partial settlement it was further agreed between the said parties that all the accounts & other evidences of claims due to the late firm after it should be left in the hands of your orator also was to remain in North Carolina (whereas the s^r. Sheppard was about to remove from that State to Ohio) for collection, & the proceeds were to be applied so far as they might go, by your orator towards the satisfaction of the debts due from the firm, & if any of the claims they left for collection turned out insolvent or otherwise unavailing the loss was of course to be equally divided by the said parties & the s^r. Sheppard was even to reimburse to your orator one half of any sum which he might be compelled to advance in settling the debts of the concern, or to balance the receipts from the sources aforesaid. Your orator further represents that he used every possible exertion in the collection of the s^r. debts & he exhibited as a part of his Bill a statement under A of every claim which he has been successful in collecting. Many particulars of the small accounts due to the firm proved insolvent of which when requisite he is prepared to afford proper evidence. He also exhibits marked B, a statement of the debts due from the firm which he has been compelled to discharge & of which he has unquestionable vouchers which he is prepared to produce before your Honor if so required. That these two statements show that your orator has advanced a very large sum of money out of his own pocket beyond the funds of the concern for one half of which the s^r. Sheppard is responsible to him as he claims on every principle of equity & justice. Your orator need admit that during the same period the said Sheppard has himself discharged some few debts due from the concern but the amount (tho' not exactly known as the s^r. Sheppard has not only altogether refused to come to any settlement but even withheld a statement of those claims discharged by him) is believed & charged to be very greatly less than the sum advanced by your orator. That the s^r. Sheppard by a variety of artifices & subterfuges has eluded & declined any settlement of these affairs with your orator also is unable to get redress except by the intervention of a Court of Chancery. He is therefore that the s^r. deft. may be compelled to answer the premises, fully explicitly & unequivocally on oath — that your orator deems the settlement & adjustment of the whole of the s^r. accounts & transacting in such mode as to your Honorships may deem most conducive to justice & finally decree to him such balance as may appear justly due, & grant him general release in the premises he may please to demand.

Dec 2nd 1823 answer for

To their nonhighness the County Court of Southampton is Chancery sitting: The answer of John Shepherd to a bill of complaint exhibited against him to the onhighness court by Samuel Weaver.

This Respondent saying to himself all benefit of exception to the many errors, and misstatements, contained in the said bill, for answer to the material parts thereof, ~~Says~~ that it is true, that your Respondent and the Compt. did enter into a copartnership for the purposes in the bill mentioned: that a dissolution took place agreeably to the allegations in the bill, ~~agreements~~ ⁱⁿ Feb'y. 1819, by mutual consent. Your Respondent also admits, that there was an agreement between them, that all the available funds of the firm, debts due, &c. should be placed in the Compt's hands for collection, and that, with their resources which this Compt himself admits were ostensibly ^{nearly} sufficient for the purpose, the said Weaver agreed to meet & discharge the outstanding debts due from the said firm ^{so far as they might go} - Your Respondent charges, that notwithstanding this agreement, ~~and~~ ~~that~~ ^{he} with his individual property, to discharge a large amount of the partnership debts existing previously to the dissolution, which will appear by an acct. herewith exhibited marked A. - that he has never rec'd. one cent of the partnership acct. since the dissolution, and is of course entitled to the entire credit in a settlement of the partnership acct. - With regard to the allegations, that in July 1819, a settlement took place, in which, your respondent acknowledges a balance due the Compt. of $552. ⁷⁵/₁₀₀ your respondent positively denies, that such was the import of his acknowledgment - it is true, that, the Compt. having the settlement of all the accts. and other evidences of debt due to the said Firm, your respondent did at the time aforesaid enter into an adjustment of his acct. with the firm, for ar-ticles which he had taken up in the store while trading, and also, for the balance of the stock on hand, after the disposition, and acknowledged the balance of the same due from him, to the late firm of Weaver & Shepherd; of which balance in the final settlement now sought by the Compt, he would be entitled to but one half in Your respondent has examined the acct^s exhibited by the Compt, and can only express his surprise that out of so large a nominal amount, there should have been so little collected. In answer to their allegation, he admits no part of the pliffs statement, but calls for strict proof of an exhi-bition of the books of the firm, of vouchers to prove his payments and of a surrender of those notes & acct^s which he alleges to have been insolvent - Your respondent believes that he owes the Compt nothing on a full settlement, which he is not disposed to delay or avoid - He denies all fraud & improper conduct in the premises, and having answered prayer to be hence dismissed &c

To Superior Court Dec^r 2nd 1893

John Shepherd this day personally appeared before me William E. Daugherty a Justice of the Peace for the County aforesaid and made oath ^{that} the above answer contains a just and true exposition of fact as far as comes within his knowledge, and as far as he can ascertain from the knowledge of others ^{that} he believes ~~to be true~~ - Given under my hand this day and year aforesaid.

Deposition

George W. Gary

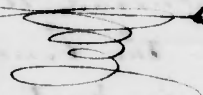

State of North Carolina

Halifax County -

Pursuant to the annexed Commission to us directed, at the Tavern of Col.^o J^oseph A. Simmons in Halifax Town, North Carolina on the Sixteenth day of October 1829. we proceeded to take the deposition of George W. Gary of Lawfield age and who being first sworn upon the Holy Evangelist of almighty God to be read as evidence in a suit in Chancery depending in Southampton County Court wherein Garrad Meaur is Plaintiff & John Shepherd is defendant - do depose and swear as follows - That some time in the month of June or July 1819 I was present at a Settlement between Garrad Meaur & John Shepherd, who settled each of their private accounts and so far as each one had paid for the firm of Meaur & Shepherd and that John Shepherd fell in debt to Garrad Meaur between five and six hundred Dollars. The bonds and accounts due the firm was divided in part, John Shepherd drew individually to his part Sundry claims against Robert Shepherd Edwards in Lindsay Susan J. Lindsay & some others, but don't recollect the claims, which amounted to the same or nearly so as those drawn by Garrad Meaur, which a list of claims drawn by the said Meaur is hereto annexed Marked A a list of the balance of the claims due the firm of Meaur & Shepherd, was drawn off and placed in the hands of Garrad Meaur for collection - which claims Garrad Meaur receipted to John Shepherd for

I a copy or list of the same hereto annexed marked B. - at the time of the Settlement of Meador & Shepherd they were some time in agreeing in what manner they should settle - sundry statements and accounts were drawn off and thrown aside which were all in my hand writing - and since the paper writing marked A & B hereto annexed and in my own hand writing was exhibited to me, ^{I believe} that they are the correct copies and statement of their then settlement, each having a copy of the paper marked B. - in my deposition given on the 15th August 1829. to which was annexed a paper writing marked A is in my own hand writing was one of the statements I think and believe was thrown aside - further this deponent saith not.

Sworn to and subscribed before us this 16th Octo 1829.

wherein Sarrad Weaver is plaintiff and John Shepherd defendant. The said Powell of lawful age and who being first sworn upon the Holy Evangelist of almighty God, Depoeth and Saith as follows (to wit)

That same time in the year 1818. I sold John Shepherd & Sarrad Weaver fat Hogs to the amount of sixteen hundred & forty eight Dollars. Sarrad Weaver as principal & John Shepherd as security gave me his bond for one half of the purchase money John Shepherd as principal & Sarrad Weaver as security gave me his bond for the other half of the purchase money, each of their said bonds being for eight hundred & twenty four dollars each & payable the first day

Weaver his debt & from Shepherd his debt. Weaver & Shepherd understood were equal partners in the purchase of the Hogs & it was before they opened their store to sell goods and when they purchased the Hogs I had no knowledge or information or believe that they had any idea of joining in the mercantile business, and further this deponent

Henry Wilkinson in his deposition states that Uccaver and Shepherd endorsed a bond due from Jas D. Powell for $200. to him, and that he commenced suit thereon, and Powell proved to be insolvent, and that he paid received from Jarrad Uccaver $128.12 that sum being one half of said bond and interest; the deposition does not say whether the other half was paid or not, but the Court presumes from all the circumstances that this must be Shepherd must have paid the other half of said bond, and its therefore not charged, if this should not be the fact, one half of the above amount say $64.06 should be added to the above balance, which would make in the whole $523.21 due Jarrad Uccaver with interest from the 31 day of Dec. 1821 till paid

N.B. The Court is instructed by the defendant to state that he has the receipt of M. H. Pettway, Sheriff of Halifax County for an exort in favour of John Purnell for $900.70 against the firm of Uccaver and Shepherd, and paid by this defendant individually on the 20th day of November 1819. This receipt was before the Court and the hand writing appears to be the same of that of other Receipts for exorts paid to the same Sheriff by both Plff and defts. as his deposition particularly specifies; but as this exort is not named in the said deposition the Court was unwilling to allow it without evi-
