

1834-049 SOUTHAMPTON COUNTY
CHANCERY PAPERS

CLAUD VS. CARR ~~al~~

7/1834

other surnames: Cloyd, Claud, Claud

1894 Apr.
Claudio } Bill
N } (am to } &c.

1833 Nov. Decree as filed &c.
1834 Jan. Decree amended &c.
July Report vet. & final decree &c.

To the worshipful court - of South Hampton in chancery sitting yr. orator Philip blair in right of his wife Margaret late Margaret Caird Respectfully complaining shews unto yr. worships That John Caird the Father of yr. orators wife died in the year 1823 having first made & published his last will & testament a copy of which is herewith filed & prayed to be considered part of this dearing small children ^{Sally Caird} ^{John Caird} ^{Richard Caird} bill, & yr. orator says That The said Sally Caird widow of John Caird died with in the time yr. orator acted by law officer The provisions made for her under said will for which reason yr. orator prays That a distribution of The Real & personal estate of said John Caird be made between The said widow & The children of said Testator agreeable to the will so far as it directs & according to the Law of distributions when The will is silent & That The said Sally Caird have her own apportioned her in said Testators estate as & said Sally Caird with portion in her own right & as guardian of her children Caird Richard Caird & March be made aft-to this bill to answer &c & for such further & general relief as to yr. worships may seem fit & proper in this behalf & for which he will be prayt

Philip Blair

The answer of Sally Caird in her own Right

& as Guardian of Patience. Richard & Monak can be children & orphans of John can decide. The said court admits the truth of plaintiffs bill & has no objection to such a decree as this court may in this behalf think just & proper & having annexed to the said ed & -

Polly. Can in be on Right & as Guardian of Patience
Richard & Monak can

This day this cause was docketed by consent of parties & came on to be heard on the bill & answer & exhibits whereupon the court with advice made & decree That - Jacob William & Nathan Pope & John Neal be any two of them proceed to divide the property of John can decide apportioning to Polly can his widow one third of the Real & personal estate of said can with regard to quality & quantity. Third & then divide the Remainder ^{equally} between Philip & Eliza in Right of his wife Margaret & Patience can Richard can & Monak can setting aside to each their respective portions to be contained in ~~minutes & records~~ according to law & report to this court &c

Claus &

u { les. decus

Carr

For Communion

Southampton November Court 1833.
Philip Blaud and right of his wife Margaret against

Sally Carr in her own right and as Guardian of Pateince Richard and Mariah Carr her children

Plff
Defendants

Offs.

This day this cause was docketed by consent of parties and came on to be heard on the bill and answer and exhibits whereupon the Court with advice order and decree that Jacob Williams, Nathan Pope, and John Neale or any two of them proceed to divide the property of John Carr dec^d, apportioning to Sally Carr his widow one third of the real and personal estate of said Carr with regard to quality and quantity thereof and then divide the remainder equally between Philip Blaud in right of his wife, Margaret, Pateince Carr Richard Carr and Mariah Carr setting aside to each their respective proportions to be ascertained according to Law, and report to this Court &c.

Southampton January Court 1834

For reasons appearing the Court with advice order and decree that the commissioners named in the former decree in this cause divide the said estate apportioning to the widow one third part of the said estate or less if she is willing to take the same as her dower in the estate of her deceased husband John Carr and divide the remaining between those entitled to the same with regard to the interest and convenience of the said parties and report to this Court in order for a final decree -

Attest Teste James Rochelle Clk

Clara

Can be } in Chancery

(The ~~annulment~~

~~in this case~~ This day authorized by the court for reasons appearing the court doth adjudge order & decree that the commissioners named in the former decree in this cause divide the said estate apportioning to the widow one third part of the said estate or up if she is willing to take the same as her dower in the estate of her deceased husband John Can & divide the remainder between those entitled to the same with regard to the interest & convenience of the said parties & report to this court the order for a final decree

Clau de

no 36. de 1770

Can 70

Southampton January Cant 1834.

Philip Cland in right of his wife Margaret late Carr. Plff.

against

Influence

Folly Carr in her own right and as Guardian of Persons, &c.

Richard & Maria's Carr.

For reasons appearing the Court doth discharge order and decree that the claimants named in the former decree in this cause divide the said estate according to the will or one third part of the said estate or less if she is willing to take the same as her dower in the estate of her deceased husband John Carr and divide the remainder between those entitled to the same with regard to the interest and convenience of the parties and report to this Court in order for a final decree.

Teste James Rochelle Clk.

Chand &
" Report.
Carr

Agreeable to the foregoing decree we the Commissioners appointed by the County Court of Southampton have divided the Estate of John Carr as directed allotting to Sally Carr Widow of said John Carr as her dower one hundred and sixty acres of land Valued at $415 and one ^{more} Negro Solomon Valued at $125 to Philip Cloyd in Right of his Wife one negro Woman ~~and~~ Rachel and Child Mary Valued at $350 also the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars: to patience Carr one Negro Man Abraham Valued $500: to Richard Carr two Negro boys Peter and John Valued at $260 and the sum of $240: to Mariah Carr one Negro man Stephen Valued at $500 and Not being able to divide the Balance of the land to advantage we thought Best to sell it which ^{we} did to Philip Cloyd for $500 and of the money arising therefrom we paid to Philip Cloyd the sum of one hundred and fifty ^{dollars} as above stated and to Richard Carrs garden the sum of $240 as above stated and of the balance which was $110 we took off $20 as Expences and the Ninety which left we divided Equally Between Philip Cloyd patience Carr Richard Carr and Mariah Carr Each share being Twenty two dollars and fifty cent

Respectfully Submitted
Jacob Williams
Nathan Pipe