In the honorable Court of Southampton in Chancery sitting Humbly complaining shew unto your worship your complainants, Rhoda Barrett widow and relict of Jefe Barrett died and Matilda, Polly, Maria, James, and Martha Barrett infant children of said Jefe Barrett died, ^{by Rhoda Barrett their mother} that the said Jefe Barrett died in the year 1823 intestate seized and possessed of a tract of land containing ninety six acres worth not more than five dollars & one and one negro slave named Rod. That a certain Augustin Pope became administrator of the said Jefe Barrett and in that character took into his possession the personal estate of the said Jefe and hath proceeded to pay the debts due from the same. your complainant Rhoda represents that she is entitled to dower in the said land and to one third in value of the said slave for her natural life and that the balance of said land and slave belongs equally to your infant complainants. your complainants beg leave further to represent that a division of said land and slave cannot be had without a sale neither can a complete adjustment of the transactions of the said administrator be had without a Court of equity. Intender consideration whereof they pray that the said Augustin Pope answer or answer may be made a party defendant hunts and be compelled to answer all the allegations herein contained fully and unequivocally. They further pray that the dower of the said Rhoda in said land may be set apart to her by meter and bounds. That the balance of said land including the reversion defer debt upon said dower may be sold and equally divided between your infant complainants. That the said slave may be sold and sent back half of the money as this Court may think the complainant Rhoda entitled to be allotted to her and the balance equally divided among the infant complainants and that the said answer be compelled to return to this Court an account of his transactions upon said state and they pray for general relief &c
