In The honorable the court of Souths ton in chancery sitting for orators Rolt. B. James C. & J. West Solomon Britt in right of his wife Patsy or late Patsy or West - Jtts up willingly comply with your wishes that then Father John West departed this life some time since intestate and perished at the time of his death of a small real estate in the county of Southampton. That he left a widow the mother of J. orators and that it is desirable that a sale should be effected of said land in order for a division is his of less than £100 value or share they else, pray that the widow may be allowed a specific sum in lieu of dower - and that she be made a gift to answer for such sum and for the relief as to the ab. may seem fit and proper to the court.

The sum of Mary West widow of John West in the bill mentioned This respondent - answers say, she has no objection to such a decree in that same as is asked for by the Jtts and having a mind to be dismissed &c
