Pursuant to the within decree, I have paid to the Deable John V. Mason a sum of Joseph Mason died by Joseph H. Prince, the sum of eighteen dollars and three cents. I have also paid to the order of Grief Hood which is hereto annexed, sixteen dollars of the ~~Public~~ ^{Public}, to my former report, who will discover that this decree is erroneous, in as much, as Grief Hood, was not entitled to but $16.53. & the amount of Joseph Mason to $18.03. It being an oversight in the attorney, as you will discover, that the two sums added together makes $34.56 which I had not then accounted for, I therefore respectfully call the attention of The Society, to the fact, that, I may be exonerated from responsibility hereafter, in relation to ~~my responsibility~~ to the trust confided to me, as Special Commissioner,
