Cham. for Comp.

To the Hon. Just. of the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for the County of Southampton Sitting in Chancery.

Remedy complaining sheweth unto your Honor your complaint, ~~James St. Paul~~ ^{James St. Paul} guardian for Alice Morris, an infant of tender years. ^{by the Court and out of office} That in the year at the Term of Southampton County Court James St. Paul was appointed guardian to Alice Morris, and entered into Bond, according to Law, with Robert Drury, J. M. Pond, John A. Hill, John St. Barth and P. H. Hastings his securities. That he continue to act as guardian according to his appointment, until the Term of the County Ct. of this County. Now, one of his securities, having money for counter security, and in failing to give, the same was displace. and ^{John A. Hill} ~~James St. Paul~~ appointed the guardian of the said infant, in his stead, all of which will more fully appear by copies of the orders and Bonds herewith filed marked

Your complaint further states, that the said James St. Paul, during the time of his acting as guardian to the said infant Morris, rec^d. large sums of money belonging to the infant, particularly the sum of return fine and six hundred dollars, rec^d. from Henry Mason late Sheriff of Suffolk County, and from the Clerk of Suffolk County Ct. which he has more imprudently, and has not returned any account, of his transactions, according to Law, in fact has made no return at all. That the said Paul is largely indebted to Alice Morris. ~~for which your complaint is filed~~ ^{and he has} as he has a right to do, demanded of, and in a friendly manner requested the said Paul to settle his guardians accounts. and pay over the balance and, to your complaint. But he under various pretenses ^{has} refused to comply with his reasonable demand

In Tender consideration of all which, and in as much as your complaint is without remedy except in a Court of Equity. To the End, therefore, he prays your Honor to make James St. Paul, late guardian to Alice Morris, & Robert Drury, J. M. Pond, John A. Hill, John St. Barth and P. H. Hastings securities of J. St. Paul, as before aforesaid, defendants, liable with apt and proper words to charge, them, and compel them to answer the same, fully and satisfactorily. That James St. Paul may be compelled, to return, before a Commissioner of this Court. a true, full and perfect account of his transactions, as guaranteed to your Compt. & your Honors. And that your Honor will allow, the balance which may be and are said settlements to be paid by Pong to your Compt. & your Honors. Pray your Honors to grant him the benefit of the 1st Article of the Constitution and grant such other and general relief, the premises considered as Equity may require, consistent with the Rules of this Court.

As in duty bound yr. Compt. will ever pray &c.
