To the worshipful Justices of the County Court of Southampton County - In Chancery sitting Humbly complaining show your complainants St. J.
Williams, Henry Trindall and A. Stewart and his wife Mary, who was Mary Prochelle, that sometime since William Prochelle of the County aforesaid died leaving a small tract of land lying in the said County and containing about 100 acres, which upon the death of said Prochelle descended to his nephews and nieces, to wit William L. Prochelle, John P. Prochelle, Mary Prochelle who married A. Stewart and Martha Prochelle, who is an infant of tender years. Your complainants further state that the said John P. Prochelle sold his interest in said land to your complainant St. J. Williams, and the said William L. Prochelle sold his interest to your complainant Henry Trindall - that they desire said land to be sold and the proceeds of sale distributed between the parties interested according to their rights. Your complainants are advised that they have a right to require the sale of said land as the distribution share of each one entitled would not exceed $300 - In consideration of the premises your Compt pray that the writ of subp. may issue, directed to commanding and they will can pray -

Williams v. Prochelle Sept Term 1845

Decree

Prochelle vs. Williams

This day this cause was docketed with leave of court and consent of parties and came on to be heard on the bill submitted with leave consent, and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that William Prochelle and James E. Peters who are hereby appointed commissioners for that purpose do, after advertising the time and place of sale for at least twenty days, at the Court House and at two or more public places in the neighborhood of the land, proceed to sell the tract of land in the bill mentioned, which doth descend from William Prochelle, to the highest bidder on a credit of six months, receiving as much in cash as may be necessary to defray the expenses of this suit; that said commissioners take from the purchaser four bonds for the residue of the proceeds of sale, in equal amounts and with good security - that they give out of said bonds to A. J. Williams, one to Henry Truitt, one to the guardian at law of Martha Prochelle, and the other to A. Stewart; which said last bond is to be lodged in the Clerk's office subject to the order of the Court - that ^{they} make a deed with special warranty to the purchaser, and report their proceedings to Court in order for a final decree

This day this cause came on again to be heard on the papers formerly read and was argued by counsel on consideration whereof the Court doth order adjudge and decree that the Commissioners mentioned in former decree be required to pay over to Sampson & Hesse the bond to which A. Stewart is entitled in right of his wife
