The Comm: states specially that the Exor. laid before him several bonds and accounts, which were not allowed, because they contained no evidence that they were paid by the Exor. These being no receipts to show the fact, or the amts paid. There were also two receipts from to Henry Whidney for money paid in part of legacy and one from the widow in part of legacy, neither of which could be brought into this account.

Walter P. Phipps & James E. Clayton Esqrs. to James & Henry Phipps except to the wills act.

1. Because the com. has allowed the E. S. on his receipts although no account had been rendered by him, for more than two years after his qualification.
2. Because the com. has allowed the expenses of 2 ad suits, which ought not to have been incurred, on the condition of the estate and not require it.

3. Because the com. has not specify the amount of the debts, which constitutes the charges. and the E. S. numbered ① ②. & for other reasons apparent on the face of the act.
