vs. } Bull

Pennington. hams &c.

1851 February Rules

To the Hon. Richard H. Baker. Judge of the Séniór Court of Southampton.

Humbly complaining sheweth unto your Honor your complainant James H. Mangum - That Jno H. P. Pennington of this County departed this life some time since intestate - leaving, a widow Mary P.
Pennington - and three infant children - Anna, Alice and Eugénie Pennington - That he was possessed of considerable personal estate, and about 1000 acres of Land lying in Southampton County -

That Henry Pennington, qualified as administrator of Jno H. P. Pennington sold nearly all the personal estate of the said - and as his intestate was much involved, he paid out, nearly all that came to his hands in a proper course of admin-istration - That Henry Pennington did - and your com-plainant qualified as adm. de bonis non on the estate of Jno H. P. Pennington - and, recd. all the appts - that were unadministered, by Henry Pennington, from the hands of his adm.

Your complainant further states, that appts have come to his hands since the 1st day of July 1850. of the estate of his intestate - and there are others to a small amount still to be collected - That there are outstanding debts against the estate of his intestate, much more than sufficient to absorb all the personal appts - in his hands - ~~and~~ ^{that} he is by Law, compelled to pay the debts pro-rata - and can not ascertain the amount of the outstanding debts, without the aid of this Court.

That it will be necessary to see the part of not the whole of the real estate of his intestate to pay the debts.

That the said is indebted to Jno A Cotton - and to Mrs Prince each in a considerable amount. To various other persons in different sums - and it will be necessary to examine all the creditors, in order that your learned counsel, may be able to administer the estate without, subjecting himself to a lawsuit.

In your consideration of all which, and in as much as your counsel is without adequate relief except in a Court of Equity. To the End therefore that justice may be done in the premises - He prays your Honor to make Mary E. Pennington, widow and Anna - Maria and Eugenia Pennington, infant children of J. P. Pennington, by some fit person to appear there in this suit - Jno A Cotton, and William - Prince and all other creditors of Pennington, left to this bill - That the creditors may be required to prove their claims before a Court of this Court - and your counsel be allowed to settle his account before the said Court - and discharge the personal assets, under the order of this Court - That the Court will order a sale of so much of the real estate as may be sufficient to satisfy all the just demands against the said - and grant such other and general relief in the premises, as may be consistent with Equity. &c.

May it Please the Court &c.

Jed Mangum	Account due March 1 st - 1847	8 75 -

The Commission states specially that no debt due by specialty in which the heirs are bound, executed previous to the 1st March 1842, was paid before hand; and that all the judgments above reported were recovered after the death of Pennington, and all of them except four to wit: those due W. D. Taylor & Co. W. S. Godwyns, W. D. Taylor & Sons and Louisa J. Perkins, were granted by Justice of the Peace

Account of the annual and real value of the real Estate of which John J. P. Pennington died seized

The real estate consists of the Borkum Mearns tract containing 436 acres - valued at $2.50 p. acre = $1090.00 - Annual val. $50.00 -
The Perkins tract, containing about 600 acres. 200 of which has been allotted to the widow as dower - estimated value of the whole tract - subject to the widow's dower - $600 - Annual value of the 200 acres - $10.00

Note - Since the above account was made up the following claims against the estate of said Pennington were proved before the Court:

W. B. Jones - account due. October 18th - 1844 $13.38

Comptroller's Office. Aug: 1851-

The Comr. has here to report the above account, pursuant to the order of the Circuit Court, at May term last. The admr. thinks that in consequence of the existence of the debt, and consequently his inability to pay out the money collected, he ought not to pay interest on the bal. of 1850, with which he is charged in the above act. If the Court shall be of that opinion, the bal. due from the admr. is $184.63 with int from the 31st Decr. 1851 -

The Comr. states specially, at the request of the admr., that he holds in his hands claims due the Estate against some of those persons whose claims are reported by the Comr., and who refused to settle with the admr. who could not allow them claims as set-off -

The Comr. also states that the admr. has in his possession a great many small medical accounts due the estate, some of which to the amount of one or two hundred dollars, he thinks he will be able to collect in the course of time.

leaving a balance of $54.50 which is now subject to the auction of the court

The Court. states that he has not paid ~~out~~ any of the ~~debts~~, because the proceeds of the sales - did not amount to enough to pay all the creditors - & some of them being in-titled to be paid. in preference to others, he was advised, not to pay away any money

Def.

This day came the parties by their attorneys and the defendant saith that his intestate did not assume upon himself in manner and form as the plaintiff against him hath complained, and of this he puts himself upon the Country, and the plaintiff likewise, and thereupon came a jury to wit, M. J. Nicholson, B. H. Papp, William Parsons, John C. Clements, Henry M. Magee, William Burt, Robert Roe, Nicholas Cooks, James A. Milborne, Miles Horn, William E. Marable and Grief Hood who being elected, tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issue joined upon their oath do say, "We of the jury find for the plaintiff and assess his damages at $43.25 with interest from the 1st Jan'y. 1849 till paid". - Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant forty three dollars and twenty five Cents with interest thereon to be computed after the rate of six per Centum per annum from the 1st day of January 1849 till payment, the damages and interest in form aforesaid assessed, and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expended. and the said defendant in mercy be. -
