To the most honorable the county court of Southampton, in Chancery sitting.

Humbly complaining them unto your worsships, your complainants Robert F.
George L. Agnes B. Arthur M. Joseph St. an Amias J. Parkes.

Infants children of Solomon D. Parkes, by James D. Parkes, their next friend. That during the lifetime of said father, his real and personal estate consisting principally of Land and Slaves. having your complainants and Lucinda his widow his heirs at Law and distributees, has and are entitled to his estate. Your complaints further state, that Lucinda Parkes governess as this father's administration, and has in her possession his whole personal estate more than sufficient to pay and satisfy all the just debts, and proper charges against his estate, and to return your complainants, him respectfully applying for a division and settlement, but the admt. has always declining to accede to this request.

They further state they are unable to assign reason in the mind of this father to his widow, and must apply to this court for aid.

Your complainants further state that they do not desire any division at present among themselves, of the property, but only an allotment of dower and thirds, to the widow.

In answer consideration of all which and in as much as your complainants are without remedy in the premises & relief in a court of Equity. To the End therefore they pray, your worsships, to appoint to our witnesses to allot. To Languid ^{Porter} widow of Sol. D. Porter one third ^{in value} each of the lands and shares, of which S. Porter also signed as a proper one, as he owned one third in the same. That you will ^{make} Languid Porter in his own right and as admt. of Solomon D. Porter a defendant to this will.

They / my Govt cannot expect to be - commended in things of this nature, and that governments will grant such other and general relief as the / ministers, as equity may dictate as in duty bound -
