To the Hon. Judges of the Circuit Court of Southampton County, in Chancery sitting.

Humbly complaining show unto your Honor.
Again complainants Henry D. White and Rosa of his wife for merely Barnatt. That Richard L.
By ^{agent} ~~agent~~ at the time of the Curing Court of Southampton County, was assigned second and to the said Rosa and entered into bond in the penalty of $100 - according to Law - copy of which has been filed marked (A).

That the said Court seized considerable sums of money belonging to his word. The said Court not known to your Compt. as no account of his transactions, those being assigned & returned to the proper Court.

That ~~the said~~ Rosa has lately intervened with your Compt. H. D. White, who has made application to the said By agent to claim to a full and fair settlement, and to pay over to your Compt. what may appear due jointly and but he declines to do so. pretending he has already settled with your former Compt. and the facts attending said pretended settlement are, that the only way in which the marriage took place, between your Compt. and with a full knowledge that the said marriage was to be consummated and without the knowledge or concurrence of your Compt. White. The said By agent contrary to Law and propriety, insisted on taking a receipt from his wife Rosa D. and insists that such a settlement is binding on your Compt. but they are advised such settlements is not binding, and was a fraud on the marital rights of your Compt.

and by which they are in no way bound if it had been fair and just.

That your Complaints are answered, that the defendant Myant claims he is entitled, to a credit for the sum of £ paid to F. T.
Ridley, for board and tuition of your son at Cambridge. This they deny because the estate of the word aid not justify, as long and as foundations, and Miss Barnett, the uncle of your son at Cambridge. well knowing her limited means, made the contract with Mr Ridley for her board and tuition, as a gratuity to be paid by him without consulting her son and for which contract neither she nor her son was in any manner responsible. Myant had no right to pay Barnett's debts, out of her funds, and yet, without a and proper regard to the interests of his ward, he obtained an order from the County Court of Southampton, announcing him to pay this very amount. This order was made, without proof before the court, without investigation and in violation of the duty of her son in protecting her rights and interests.

In view consideration of all which and in as much as your Complaints are without adequate relief, in the premises, it is in a Court of Equity where such matters are peculiarly cognizable. To the End, therefore that Justice may be done your Complaints pray the Court that the S^r Rich^d Labrayant may be made a defendant to this bill and compelled to answer its allegations, fully and unsparingly; That he do on oath, what estate, rights credits and monies belonging to your son at Cambridge - came to his hands as her son and that he render a full and complete account of his transactions as her son at Cambridge before a Court of this Court, and that whatever balance may be ascertained due to her may be ordered to be paid to your Complaints; and grant such other, further and general relief, as Equity may require and the merits of the case require.

May it please the Court &c.

Answer of R. L. Bryant

1868 May 4

in shewing

The Answer of Richard L Bryant to a bill in the circuit court of Southampton by White and wife vs

This defendant for answer to the said bill or as much thereof as he is advised it is material for him to answer, answering says, That he was the guardian of Rosa wife of the said G. D. White, That he has settled two accounts before a commissioner of the county court of Southampton the first showed a balance due the guardian of $113.70cts due 31st December 1862 which was in G. States currency which equaled to U. States currency amounted to the sum of $35.85cts it is true he did have a settlement with his ward on the eve of her marriage as he had a right to do she being of age and taking her bond for the balance found due him, but hearing that she and her husband were dissatisfied with this settlement he had another account settled before a commissioner which showed ^{on} a final settlement a balance due him of $23.58cts all of which will more fully appear by copies of the said accounts herewith filed (marked A and prayed to be taken as a part of this ~~bill~~ ^{answer}, And for further answer he says that he knows nothing of the Bargain made between Beyer Brant and F. T. Killy in regard to Rosa's education, but she was sent to this school and F. T. Killy applied to him over and over again for the money for her board and tuition giving him to understand that she could not remain unless he R. L. Bryant paid for it, This defendant knows that he has no authority to expend a portion of the principal of his ward's estate for her maintenance and education without the authority of a court of competent jurisdiction and considering that it would be to the advantage of this young lady to give her a respectable education and training in an polished family he obtained an order from the court as admitted by the plaintiff authorizing the expenditure of a portion of the principal of her estate for her education and paid to F. T. Ridley the sum $303. for three years ^{and upwards} board and education a sum moderate enough for a liberal and gentle education, This defendant is willing to settle any further accounts which may be ordered by this court, but he shall certainly expect and demand that after having had a fair settlement with his ward after she had arrived at age and his accounts also showing a balance due him that this court will give him all his costs expended about this vexatious and unnecessary suit, and having fully answered prayer him to be discharged with his costs ~~see~~ Richard L. Bryant
