that her husband John Jones, departed this life in the year 1863, having previously executed his last will & testament which was admitted to record in the Clerk's office of the County Court of Southampton County on the 16th February 1863, a copy of which is herewith filed, as part of this Bill & marked A -

That by said will the said testator devised & bequeathed to your oratrix all of his estate real, personal & mixed (after the payment of his debts & certain specific legacies therein mentioned) for & during her natural life & at her death then remainder to certain of his children

That notwithstanding the Executors of said will have sold all of the said estate of every kind (the real estate under a former decree of this Court & she has received her equitable portion of the said realty) but has never received any portion of the proceeds of the sale of the personalty - all of the said estate was sold by her consent.

Your oratrix is advised that she is entitled to an equitable portion of the proceeds of the said personalty, & prays that a decree to that effect may be granted by the Court - as she is known to reside elsewhere save in the Court of Chancery *
