Southampton County Chancery - Urquhart, Eliza A. vs Urquhart, A.B.
Trustee

use trustee funds for purchase of property

wife of Urquhart - A.B.

To the Hon J W Wigham Judge of the County Court of Southampton

In Chancery sitting

Humbly Complaining, sheweth unto your honor, your Petrix Ediza A Wigham (wife of A Wigham) by the latter as her next friend, that in the year 1869 Mrs Ediza B Wigham departed this life having executed her last will & testament which was admitted to & record in this court at the March term thereof in said year a copy of which is herewith filed (marked A) and prayed to be made a part of this bill. That by said will a portion of said testatrix's estate is given to your Petrix's separate use & benefit - that at the January term of this Court in the year 1871 (as will appear by exhibit B) the said A Wigham was appointed Trustee to hold the estate so given and bequeathed to his said wife for her separate use & benefit & in that capacity has received certain & considerable sums of money.

Your Petrix is advised that her said Trustee has purchased a certain tract of land with good buildings there on lying in Southampton County; it being the same recently owned by Shos Morgan known as the retreat and it ~~is~~ is her wish & desire that her said Trustee may be ordered to invest so much of her said funds, in this farm, as may be necessary to pay for the same (about the sum of $1200 ⁰⁰/₁₀₀) and hold the same for her separate use & benefit as directed by the said will; and thus provide a comfortable home for herself & children.

 Your Petitioner prays that the said Trustee her said husband may be made a party defendant to this Bill - be required to answer &c - and that your honor would do all other things, equity considered, that justice may dictate and the nature of her case may require - and as in duty bound she will ever - pray - may it please the Court.

Ugubans
vs

Ugubans Trustees

Answer

1871 Decr. Decree of

Received by Clerk Circuit Court Aug. 13th 1873.

The separate answer of A. B. Weymouth, Trustee for Eliza A. Weymouth, to a Bill filed against him, in the County Court of Southampton County—

This Respondent for answer &c says that he admits that he was appointed Trustee for his wife the said Eliza A. Weymouth as charged in her said Bill— that he also admits the possession of some money for the use & benefit of his said wife.
And further states that he is of opinion that the purchase of the tract of land in the Bill mentioned would be a judicious investment as it would secure a comfortable home for his wife & children.
And he therefore, entirely approves it and unconditionally recommends it to the Court, and having answered prays to be dismissed.
