Answer of

George W Dick

1879 April 26th filed.

The answer of George W. Wicks admr of J. C. Harris filed to a bill in Chancery by Joel Welbrook and others against him and others

This defendant for answer to the said bill or so much thereof as it is material for him to answer, answering says the estate of J. C. Harris was committed to his hands as plaintiff as said in his petition in December 1862 and that he received the amounts of money specified in the plaintiffs bill exhibits filed with his bill and none other his settled accounts showing all the money that came to his hands he denies emphatically that he has received any bonds of which he does not render an account. He answers further that this estate was committed to his hands in the midst of the late war, that his intestate was in the confederate service and died during the war. Your respondent states that all the money that ever came to his hands from his intestate was in confederate currency the amount of sales of personalty and one negro sold for $3500 in 1864 being the bulk of it. This respondent states that having received this money in the due course of administration and finding no one to receive it Then bring no guardians for the children and the money likely to perish on his hands he acting under an order of the county court of Southampton invested the sum of $3600 in Confederate States 7.30s bonds which he himself filed Your respondent states he acted under one order of the county court because for some time previous to the termination of the war the circuit courts were interrupted in the county Your respondent states that he did every thing he could to protect the interests of all concerned in the estate and the loss that occurred without any fault of his 1st That it was money which came to his hand in Confederate States currency during the war as fiduciary 2nd That it was vested in the due execution of his trust and 3rd He invested it under order of the court because he was unable to pay it over to any of the parties entitled to receive it. And he herewith files with his answer the order of the county court, the $3600 which he invested being Habank. The money belonging to the estate of the plaintiff money to pay Taxes &c And having fully answered prays hence to be dismissed with his costs &c

Commissioners Report.

Commissioner's Office,
Jerusalem Virginia,
April 30th 1880.

Pursuant to a decree of the Circuit Court of Southampton County, rendered at the November Term thereof, in 1879, in a suit in Chancery therein depending between Joel Westbrook wife et als, plaintiffs against George W. Vick, Sheriff, and as such, administrator of J. C. Harris, decd, et als, defendants, the undersigned, one of the Commissioners, to whom was referred for settlement, first, An Account of the Personal property of which J. C. Harris died possessed, and second, An Account of George W. Vick's administration of the estate of said Harris, reports to the Court that, as directed by said decree, he served personal notice on George W. Vick, and, by an Order of Publication in the "Norfolk Virginian," a news-paper published in the City of Norfolk, he gave notice to the other several parties interested, requiring them to attend the settlement of the said accounts before him, at his said office, on the 14th day of April 1880, which Order returned properly certified and executed, and are hereto annexed, marked A & B. That the parties aforesaid appeared before the Commissioner in obedience to the said Order of Publication and notice, but no vouchers having been produced to him, he was, therefore, unable to state and settle the above accounts. That the said George W. Vick denying all liability in his fiduciary character, simply referred the Commissioner to an inspection of his transactions as shown by the papers returned and filed among the records in the Clerk's Office of Southampton County. That the Commissioner did make a careful examination of the records and found returned (together with the Guardian Accounts of the Orphans of Howell Harris, decd, rendered by J. C. Harris, the decedent of the said George W. Vick) his several administration accounts, certified copies of which are hereto annexed, marked C. & D., of which said administration accounts, the last, discloses a balance on the 20th April 1864 of $2085.25 cts, inclusive of $3600.00 amount realized from the sale of a slave that year, which balance, he reported to have invested under an order of Court in 7.30 Confederate States Bonds.

The Commissioner states that the order of Court, granted on the 21st day of March 1864, authorized the investment of $3600.00 either in Confederate States or Virginia State Stock as to the administrator might seem best, a certified copy of which said order is hereto annexed marked E, but the papers show an investment of $3700.00 in Confederate States Bonds, a certified memorandum of which is hereto annexed, marked F.

Any difficulty or explaining which the complexity and inconsistency of these statements may suggest or occasion, the Commissioner is unable to reconcile or explain. As to the lands with which the said George W. Vick is charged in the Complainant's Bill with having collected, the Commissioner has received no informations and, therefore, can make no report concerning them.

With these facts the Commissioner submits his report.

Given under my hand as Commissioner aforesaid the day and year first aforesaid.
