Attorney-at-Law,
DOVERLAND, VIRGINIA.

General Trade Co., Baltimore and Boston, Maryland, Va.

To

The Honorable Robert R. Prentiss, Judge of the Circuit Court for Southampton County.

- In Chancery -

Your complainant Jno Pretlow jr. J. D. Pretlow S B. Pretlow M. H. Moore & R. A. Pretlow merchants and partners trading as Pretlow & Co. complaining show with unto the Court the following case: that sometime during the year 189, D. L. Bradshaw departed this life intestate, leaving as his distributees his heirs at law Ella M. Bradshaw his widow and five infant children to wit: Belle, C., August R., October D., September R. and December D. Bradshaw, that at the time of his death, he was seized of some personal property and a tract of land containing acres more or less upon which he resided prior to his death. bounded by the lands of and others; that at the Term of the County Court 189, the estate of the said decedent was committed to the hands of the Shiriff of this County to be administered, as will appear by reference to a copy of the order of Court committing said estate filed herewith marked "H."

That at the time of the said decedent's death he was indebted to your orators in the sum of $75⁰⁰, as is evidenced by a bond of said decedent filed as a part of this bill, marked "B" and prayed to be read as a part hereof.

Your complainants aver & charge that they are entitled to have the property of the said decedent subjected to the payment of his outstanding obligations, and to have the real estate sold subjected to the widow's dower interest therein, should the same become necessary in order to pay the debts.

In consideration whereof and for as much as your Complainants are without remedy save in a Court of Equity, they pray that J. W. Williams Sheriff & Administrator of D. L. Bradshaw dead Ella M. Bradshaw, Bill C., August R., October D, September R. & December D. Bradshaw the last four infants be made parties defendant to this bill & required to answer the allegations of the same but answers and oaths are waived; that a proper and discreet person be appointed guardian ad litem to defend the interest of the infant defendants; that the said Sheriff & Admin. of the Decedent be required to render an account of his transactions as such; that an account of the debts against the decedent estate may be taken; that the real estate, if necessary, may be subjected to the payment of the debts outstanding & to that end that the same be sold. & the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of the debts proved against the decedent according to their priorities; that all such general & special relief may be granted, orders & decrees entered, and accounts directed as the nature of the case may require or to equity may seem meet. And notice is here given, that the Court will be asked to allow reasonable fees to plaintiffs Counsel conducting this cause out of any fund under its control.
And your orators will ever pray &c.
