Samuel Belmont

against

James M. Byrnes son of Henry Briggs son and This cause came on this day to be heard on a motion to set aside the judgment, and was argued by counsel, on consideration thereof the Court recuses the motion to set aside the judgment, and being of opinion that an account should be taken of the payments and disbursements (if any) that have been made to either of the legacies John Harrison and William Belmont, by the testator of this cause, same as to be shown in the following manner: That the said James M. Byrnes was sworn by court on January and sworn that William S. Westbrook who is hereby appointed a special commissioner for that purpose, take an account of the payments or disbursements that have been made to either of the aforesaid legacies in payment or satisfaction of the several legacies to which they are respectively entitled under the Will of Samuel Belmont, the decd, and, taking as the basis of his account, the said balance to the County Court of Southampton, by Henry Briggs administrator of the said Samuel Belmont, on the 15th day of February in the year 1837 and that he state such matters in the said account as he may be required to state by the parties, or as may be deemed pertinent by himself.
