against William B Goodwyn executor of James Kelle dec^d. Mary W Kelle and Samuel J Douglas and Lewis H D his wife

Def.

This cause came on again to be heard on the papers for money owed and the report of the Commissioner made pursuant to the order of the 5th of April 1844, to which no exception has been filed, and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof, the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that the said report be confirmed, and that the defendant Mary W Kelle pay to the plaintiffs Thomas W Vaughan and his wife Margaret, the sum of Eighty three dollars thirty and a half cents with interest thereon from the 31st day of December 1840 till paid, and the further sum of ninety dollars nine and one third cents with interest thereon from the 31st day of December 1841 till paid; and that she also pay to Samuel J Douglas and his wife Lewis H D the sum of Eighty three dollars thirty and a half cents with interest thereon from the 31st day of December 1840 till paid; and ninety dollars nine and one third cents with interest thereon from the 31st day of December 1841 till paid; and that the said Thomas W Vaughan and Samuel J Douglas or some person for them, shall each execute a bond with good security, in the penalty of five hundred dollars payable to the said Mary W Kelle, conditioned to pay to her the sum of fifty dollars per annum for her support and board during her widowhood - And that Court doth also order that John and Susan Hamel & James Harry Moore & Nathaniel Frances Williams John Smith, Samuel Dewey and John Dewey, any three of them proceed to divide into three equal shares, three Peters, Andrews Abbeys, Arthur, Cardine, Lucy and Jane, being the slaves belonging to the estate of Williams P Kelle, and set apart one third to Thomas W Vaughan and wife, one third to Samuel J Douglas and wife and the other third part to the defendant Mary W Kelle. And that the said Commissioners or any three of them do also divide equally between Samuel J Douglas, and his wife Lewis H D and the plaintiffs Thomas W Vaughan and his wife Margaret all the lands in the County of Southampton whereof James Kelle died seized as and estate of inheritance and which was devised by the last will and Testament of said James Kelle to his son William P Kelle, having regard in such division to the quality and quantity, and make report to this Court.
