

Mr. Blaw

against

Henry A. Bailey administrator of Thomas B. Blaw

This day the cause in which the defendant has been indebted more than two months, and the defendant still failing to appear and answer the plaintiffs bill, the same is taken for confessed, (came on to be heard and the bill and exhibits filed and was argued by counsel) on consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge order and decree that the defendant Henry A. Bailey pay to Mr. Blaw for the benefit of William A. Spruill the sum of fifty dollars and half nine cents with interest thereon from the twenty eighth day of June 1857 till paid and the costs of this suit. But the plaintiff is not to have the benefit of this decree until he or some one for him execute a satisfying bond with good security conditioned as the law directs.
