Joseph H. Prince executor of the last will & Testament of Joseph T. Cloud do^r Bifff 3

This day this cause came on again to be heard on the paper formerly read and on the report of the Commissioners appointed by the order of the last Term of this Court to all to the widow of Joseph T. Cloud her portion of the slaves of the estate of Joseph T. Cloud dead to assign to her her donee in the real estate of which the said Joseph T. Cloud died. Said and proposed, and to divide the slaves which remained after the widow's portion was allotted and those specifically bequeathed, were taken off according to the will of the said Joseph T. Cloud. to which report there is no exception and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof the Court enjoining the said report, doth adjudge, order and decree that the same be binding and stable between the parties. and that the four eighths of the slaves, which said Commissioners have not divided between Joshua, Cornelius & Rose Cloud according to the decree, be permitted to remain undivided between them, be held by them jointly as their four eighths of the slaves of the said estate - as this act of the said Commissioners needs the approbation of the said parties, and is not in the opinion of the Court injurious to the said Joshua, Cornelius and Rose or any one of them - and the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree that Joseph W. Cloud pay to Peter D. Comenell and Martha his wife the sum of twenty one dollars and twenty five cents with interest from this day bill paid - That they pay to Joshua, Cornelius and Rose Cloud the sum of five dollars 62 1/2 cents with interest from this day bill paid - That Joseph W.
