} Appellee

against

Hannah Whitcomb

} Upon an appeal from a } decree pronounced by the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery held for Southampton County on the tenth day of November 1848 in a suit in which the appellee was plaintiff and the appellants testator was defendant -

This day came the parties by their Counsel, and the Court having maturely considered the testimony of the record of the decree aforesaid and the arguments of Counsel, is of opinion that there is no error in the said decree: therefore it is decreed and ordered that the same be affirmed, and the appellants out of the estate of their testator in their hands to be administered, do pay unto the appellee her costs by her and her defense in this behalf expended. Which is ordered to be certified to the Circuit Court of Southampton County -

Appellee's costs in the Court of Appeals } $45.95.
