This day this cause came again to be heard on the papers formerly read and the report of Commissioner Keesomyn made pursuant to an order of November the 18th 1848, to which there is no exception and the Court confirming the same doth at judge, order and decree that the plaintiffs recover of the defendant James G. Bond the sum of \$91.46 $\frac{1}{2}$ with interest from the date of this decree and also the cost of this suit, and it is further decreed that the defendant Samuel B. Kelle pay to the said plaintiffs \$60.46 $\frac{1}{2}$ with interest on \$50.55 $\frac{1}{2}$ part thereof from the 2nd of October 1850 out of the effects in his hands belonging to the said James G. Bond and leave is reserved for the plaintiffs to apply for further relief. But this decree shall be of no effect until the plaintiffs
