

or some one for him shall execute a bond in the clerk's office of the court in the penalty of one hundred and fifty dollars with security who shall justify on oath as to his sufficiency - conditioned to abide such further order of the court as may be made for him. Forcing the said effects to the above defendant James H. Bond upon his appearing and answering the bill and also abate with sufficient security in the penalty of one hundred and fifty dollars conditioned to ~~repay~~ the above defendants due proportion of all debts which may hereafter come against the estate of the said Mary Bond.

19. G. Burwell, surviving partner of B. & G. Burwell late merchants & partners trading under the firm and style of B. & G. Burwell. R. H.

Benjamin C. Wallis, James C. Mendenham & Thompson C. Reese & Co.

This day this cause came on to be heard on the bill, answer of the defendants Waller, Morgan and Gate and Turner executors of Reese's estate and depositions and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof, the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that Benjamin C. Waller render before a commissioner of this an account of the effects in his hands belonging to the defendant Morgan at the time the returning order in this cause was executed, also that the commissioner report the same to court with any matters specially stated deemed pertinent by himself or required by any of the parties to be so stated, and it is further decreed that the Plaintiff render before the said commissioner an account of all the goods, debts and effects belonging to the firm of Wolf & Morgan or to the defendant Morgan individually which he may have received and what disposition he has made thereof, and that the commissioner report the same to Court with any matters specially stated deemed pertinent by himself or which may be required by any of the parties to be so stated.

Frederick S. B. Tyler who was by her most friend Samuel B. Linscott against

Martha B. Rockelle in her own right and as executrix of James Rockelle dec'd. L. R. Edwards John W. Emery & others. Extra

The cause came on this day to be again heard on the papers formerly read and the report of the receiver together with the report of commissioner Cobb's master Mr. Touching the outstanding demands against the estate of James Robbelle had returned to our company by the County Court of Southampton in the month of April 1857 which account is now filed as an exhibit in this cause by Littleton R. Edwards and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof the said report of the receiver not being objected to is confirmed, and the Court with advice and consent of the jury and the Court with advice and consent of the jury after survey at least four weeks notice of the time and place of sale by advertisement at the Southampton Free Press and at one or more public places in the County approved by the seller or sellers.