

of the interlocutory decree pronounced in this cause at the May term 1882 to which report there is no exception, On consideration whereof, the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that the said report be confirmed in all respects.

Thomas Ridley & Samuel Drury, Exrs of Henry B. Vaughan dec'd. Plffs. against
William Parker, Fayetta Parker, Virginia Parker, Thomas Vaughan, N. V.
Wainwright his wife Martha C. formerly Vaughan, Elijah Nelson, Rebecca & Anna Parker and her younger sister Fredericka, Thomas Parker, Edwin Myles, Henry W. Holman, Josephine, Thomas and Mary Simston children of Edmund Simston & Mary A. his wife & others. Dfts.

The bill of the complainants having been taken for confessaat rules as to the defendants Thomas Vaughan, William Parker, Fayette Parker, Virginia Parker, Elijah Nelson and N. V. Wainwright and his wife Martha who still fail to appear and answer and the cause coming on to be heard on the bill and exhibits therewith filed, answering of the infant defendants, by their guardian ad litem and general replications thereto was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof the Court not deriving any principle involved in the cause doth adjudge, order and decree that Samuel Drury and Thomas Ridley remove before a Commissioner of this Court an account of their transactions or receipts of Henry B. Vaughan dec'd and also an account of any payments which may have been made by them to any of the legatees under the will of said Henry B. Vaughan in full or in part satisfaction of their legacies so as to show what amount is still due each of said legatees and what amount remains in their hands after payment of the legacies. That said Commissioner also take an account showing the value in money of any legacies other than specific legacies bequeathed in said will and which were not in the possession of said Henry B.
Vaughan at his death which accounts said Commissioner is directed to audit, state and report, together with any matters especially stated deemed pertinent by himself or which may be referred to be so stated by either of the parties.

John W. Simton and his wife Margaret Ann formerly Winston Robert Wilson & his wife Ann D. formerly Winston. Plffs.
Thers

against
Robert Hicks Surv. Exr of Robert Hicks dec'd. Dfts.

The bill of the complainants having been taken for confessaat the rules and the defendants still failing to appear and answer and the cause coming on to be heard on the bill and exhibits filed, was argued by the complainants counsel. On consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that Robert Hicks Surviving executor of Robert Hicks dec'd remove before a Commissioner of this