

and proposed on a credit of six months, except for so much as may be necessary to pay the costs of this decree (and said sale, taking bonds from the purchasers with approved security) and return them to this Court with his report in order to a final decree. And the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree that a Commissioner of this Court take the following accounts 1st An account of the value of the property acquired by Nathaniel J. Linsay by his marriage with the plaintiff Sarah Ann Linsay. 2nd An account of the value of the share of the said Sarah Ann Linsay in the estate of Martha Williams dec'd. 3rd An account of the transactions of Edwin Williams as adm^r of the said Martha Williams which accounts the said Commissioner is directed to take and report to this Court with any matter specially stated deemed pertinent by himself or which he may be required to do by either of the parties. But the execution of this decree is to be suspended until the next friend or some other person with sufficient security shall execute refunding bonds to the said Edwin Williams adm^r as aforesaid, if required by him, in the penalty of three thousand dol. Law conditioned according to Law.

Jacob J. McWilliams & John Hall partners & trading under the style of Williams & Hall against

Amos P. Harrell, William Glover, Harrison D. Moore, Lewis McConnell and James & William McDeane & Co

The bill of the complainants having been taken for confessed at the rules as to the defendant Amos P. Harrell who still fails to appear and answer, (and it appearing to the Court that the complainants have proceeded in the mode provided by Law against absent defendants, as to the defendants William Glover, James and William McDeane & Co, who still fail to appear and answer, on motion of the complainants by Counsel their bill is taken for confessed as to these defendants, and the cause coming on to be heard with bill and exhibits, answer of the defendants Moore and McConnell replication thereto and examination of witnesses, was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof, the Court doth order, adjudge, and decree that a Commissioner of this Court take an account of the partnership transactions between the parties referred to in the proceedings showing what gains or losses have been made or incurred by each one of the parties and what amounts are now due from the one to the other of said parties; and the said Commissioner is hereby authorized, if required, to examine the parties or any of them in relation to and touching the matters in controversy; and that said Commissioner stated deemed pertinent by himself or may be required to be so stated. And the Court doth further order that the Commissioner give notice of the taking of such account a week for five weeks successively and that such publication be equivalent to personal service of the notice.