

person who he looked for the security of that person would the transaction of that business be referred to that date for office recorded there, as to the bank may have required therefore it is desired and advised that the bank should be inserted and recorded and that the application for notes the applicant has not by that required in the presentation of the applicant against that bank. That it is advised that the case be recorded to the bank bank of London having to be presented as according to the principle of the bank and for a further case.
 There is a record to be made of the bank bank bank.
 Applicant (see on bank of applicant) (1877) 70 18

1877 70 18