

shall also view & estimate the value of the negroes of the said James B. Mayhew as & one fourth part of said real & negro property in value shall allot a piece & set apart (according to the intention of the will of said James B.
Mayhew dec'd) the plaintiff Whitwell Mayhew, a son of the said James B. Mayhew as his part & portion thereof. And the said Commissioners in carrying out this decree, are not necessarily to allot one fourth part each of the said land & negroes, but of beneficial to all the parties, may allot any greater or less quantity than one fourth of either having regard to the interests of all entitled, unless the greater deficiency in either may make compensation either by a less or greater quantity of the other species of property, or in money, as to them may seem best in order to equalize the division as before suggested, and they will make and return a full report of their proceedings to this Court in order to future orders in the premises.

William McCall & Margaret, & his wife, formerly Margaret & Sebrell Defts against

William J. & James M. Sebrell, William N. & James T. Brimrose Jas Bray, Wm. Nicholas & Virginia Sebrell (the last four infants) Exrs

This day the cause came on for hearing again heard on the proper family read and on the reports of Messrs. Cobb made under decesses of this Court pronounced at May Term 1853, and November Term 1853, on the exceptions of the defendant William J. Sebrell to the said first mentioned report and the plaintiff withdrawing their exceptions to the same, and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof, the Court overruling the said exceptions of the defendant W^m J. Sebrell, and confirming the said report disallowing commissions to the said Exrs, another statement showing the amount due to the plaintiffs, doth adjudge, order and decree that the defendant William J. Sebrell ex^r of W. M. Sebrell out of his own estate pay to the plaintiffs William A. Bell and Margaret C. Bell his wife the sum of seven hundred and sixty seven dollars & eighty two cents with interest thereon from December 31st 1853, till paid. And the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree that William J. Sebrell, Executor of Nicholas M. Sebrell dec'd render before a Commissioner of this Court a further account of his transactions with the estate of his testator who will report the same to Court with and matters specially stated deemed pertinent by himself & which may be required by either of the parties to be so stated. And the plaintiffs William A. Bell and wife shall have the benefit of this decree until they or some one for them shall execute a proper reimbursement bond with good security in the Clerk's office of this Court payable to William J. Sebrell in a penalty equal to double the amount
owed to be paid to them conditioned according to law, and as to all other matters this cause is continued until the next term of this Court. And the defendant intimating a desire to take an Appeal it is ordered that this decree be suspended for sixty days upon the said debt entering into the Clerk's office with good security in a penalty equal to double the amount of the sum decreed against him in this case conditioned according to law.
