This cause came on to be heard on the bill, answer, replication of which was filed & was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge, order & decree that a Commissioner of this Court ascertain the value of the land in the bill mentioned, now owned by W<sup>m</sup> H<sup>r</sup>.
Jenkins, on the 1st Feb<sup>r</sup> 1853, and also the value of such permanent improvements as shall have been made by the defendant of his assigns and also the annual value of the same, and that the said Commissioner also report whether any estate or how much was left by Solomon Cumplas the husband of the compleatant at his death, all which accounts the said Commissioner is directed to examine and report with my matter specially stated deemed pertinent by himself or required by the parties to be stated.
