This day this cause came on to be again heard on the papers formerly read and on the report of Com^r Cobb made pursuant to a decree rendered at the May term 1855, of this Court, and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof the Court confirming so much of said report as ascertains the sum of $581.59 with interest from May 1st 1856 to be due to William A. Bell adm^r of Margaret C. Bell, doth adjudge, order and decree that William C. Schell Executor of W. N. Schell pay to the said W^m A. Bell adm^r the sum of $581.59 with interest thereon from May 1st 1856, and his costs by him in this suit expended. But this decree shall be suspended until the said Bell shall execute a proper refunding bond in a penalty equal to double the amount decreed to be paid to him, conditioned according to law.

Ordered that the Court be adjourned till tomorrow morning Ten o'clock.
