} A motion of and a bona motum

for the forthcoming on the day of sale of property taken under execution.

This day came the plaintiffs by their attorney and appearing to the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this motion they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiffs may have execution against the defendants for three hundred and sixty dollars the penalty of the said bond and their costs by them about this motion in this behalf expended. And the said defendants in May 1857. But this judgment is to be discharged by the payment of One hundred and seventy nine dollars fifty one cents with legal interest thereon from the 30th day of December 1856 till paid and the costs.

On the motion John M. Gurley against Richard A. Gramp. This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant had had legal notice of this motion, he was solemnly called but came not. Whereupon the evidence adduced by the plaintiff being heard it seems to the Court from the said evidence, that the plaintiff was surety for the defendant in the bond upon which judgment has been entered up in this Court against the said plaintiff in favor of Jazwell Taylor receiver of the said Court and the Court is also satisfied, from the said evidence that eleven hundred and nine dollars thirty one cents the amount of said judgment was paid and discharged by the plaintiff on the 18th day of February 1856. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant Eleven hundred and nine dollars and thirty one cents, The amount to be paid with interest thereon from the 18th day of February 1856 till payment and fifty five dollars and forty six cents being five per centum damages on said amount, and their costs by them about this motion in this behalf expended. And the said Defendant in May 1857.
